“Coach’s Code of Ethics”

We, as coaches for BVBA, believe and affirm that:

All coaches shall uphold the by-laws and goals of our association, and those of their respective sport, including the Code of Conduct. To achieve this end, we pledge compliance with the following policies and principles:

- 1) Our paramount responsibility is to our players and our association
- 2) Honesty and integrity will guide our actions.
- 3) High standards of health, sportsmanship and education shall be considered in all activities associated with the operation of our respective teams.
- 4) We shall deal fairly with our respective players and parents, as well as the opposition’s players, parents, coaches and organization.
- 5) As coaches, we agree that every person in the Association should get the greatest possible value from their experience.
- 6) We pledge our support to our associates including local, state and national associations concerned with the teaching of the aforementioned qualities to our youth.
- 7) We agree that we will not abuse, either verbally or physically, any player, parent or official in conducting our coaching duties.
- 8) We will treat officials with respect and courtesy. We will follow proper channels of communication with the officials.
- 9) Any constructive criticism of players or officials is to be done in a private and appropriate manner.
- 10) Any coach dismissal from a game by an official will automatically result in an additional one game suspension.

I agree with the goals and policies set forth in this code and assume my coaching responsibilities based on these guidelines. I further understand that any violation of the Coach’s Code of Ethics or the Code of Conduct, as determined by the Director of Baseball, may result in suspension and/or dismissal from all coaching duties.
