There's nothing else like it.

The other day a potential customer emailed us and asked: Why should I spend my limited resources on Total Hockey? That's a great question. Here's the answer. Total Hockey is the fastest and easiest way to learn the game of hockey. It's the only product licensed to use actual NHL footage to illustrate every aspect of the game. Sure, you might be able to get another former NHL coach to be your personal tutor to the game, but take it from us - they don't make very good houseguests. You get to hear Kevin talk about every aspect of the game in the over 200 different video clips on each CD. Each CD contains literally hours of hockey content. Coaches from every level of hockey - the youngest amateurs to the NHL Pros - have invested in Total Hockey. In short, there's nothing else like it!
