TEAM USA ALL-TIME VS. GERMANY

Today's game marks just the seventh meeting between the United States and Germany and the International Ice Hockey Federation Men's Under-18 World Championship, and first since 2011. The two countries have only met four times since 2001, with the U.S. earning victories in all of those contests. Germany owned a slight edge in the overall record during the event's early years, with two wins coming in consecutive tournaments (2000-01). Overall, the Team USA is 5-0-0-2 (W-OTW-OTL-L) against the Germans and holds a 37-10 advantage in total goals during the series.

TEAM USA ALL-TIME IN THE PRELIMINARY ROUND

Today's game is the 69th all-time preliminary-round contest for the U.S. at the IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship. Overall, Team USA boasts a 51-0-1-15-1 (W-OTW-OTL-L-T) record in the group stage of the event. Since 2001, the United States is 49-0-1-9-1 in preliminary play, good for a .825 winning percentage during that stretch.

KELLER SHINES IN 6-4 WIN OVER SWEDEN

The U.S. Men's National Under-18 Team took care of Sweden, 6-4, Sunday (April 19), thanks to a four-point (2-2) night from Clayton Keller. Keller was helped by linemates Colin White, who had one goal and two assists, and Jeremy Bracco, who collected a pair of assists. Goaltender Luke Opilka was between the pipes for the United States, stopping 14 shots in the victory.

2016 U18 WORLDS TO BE HELD IN GRAND FORKS, NORTH DAKOTA

The IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship will be held in the United States for the second time when the tournament heads to Grand Forks, North Dakota, next April. The main venue will be Ralph Engelstad Arena, an 11,643-seat building that is home to the University of North Dakota men's and women's hockey programs. The first time the U.S. hosted the U18 World Championship was 2009, when future U.S. Olympian Cam Fowler led Team USA to a gold medal in Fargo, North Dakota.

ELEVEN ON NHL CENTRAL SCOUTING'S FINAL DRAFT RANKINGS

Eleven members of the U.S. squad have been included in the final NHL Central Scouting draft rankings. The list includes skaters Colin White (29), Christian Fischer (37), Jack Roslovic (39), Jordan Greenway (47), Jeremy Bracco (60), Brendan Warren (66), Troy Terry (107), Caleb Jones (115), Nicholas Boka (117) and Casey Fitzgerald (148); and goaltender Luke Opilka (12).

CAPTAINS AMERICA

Luke Kunin, a native of Chesterfield, Missouri, has been named captain of the 2015 U.S. Men's National Under-18 Team. Kunin, who will play for the University of Wisconsin next winter, wore a letter for USA Hockey's National Team Development Program throughout the 2014-15 season. Joining Kunin in the leadership roles will be alternate captains Auston Matthews, who is making his second IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship appearance, and Colin White, a projected first-round pick in the upcoming NHL Entry Draft.

UNDER-18 WORLDS TO THE OLYMPICS

Since the first IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship in 1999, the United States has seen 15 future Olympians skate for the U.S. Men's National Under-18 Team in the event. The list includes goaltenders Rick DiPietro (1999) and Jimmy Howard (2002); defensemen Justin Faulk (2010), Cam Fowler (2009), Erik Johnson (2005, 2006), Jack Johnson (2004, 2005), Ryan McDonagh (2007), Kevin Shattenkirk (2007), Ryan Suter (2002, 2003) and Ryan Whitney (2001); and forwards Patrick Kane (2006), Ryan Kesler (2002), Phil Kessel (2004, 2005), Zach Parise (2002) and James van Riemsdyk (2006, 2007).

INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE

Each of the 23 players on Team USA has previous experience playing on the international stage. Auston Matthews is the only player who has participated in an International Ice Hockey Federation event prior to this year's U18 World Championship. The Scottsdale, Arizona, native is making his third IIHF appearance. Matthews previously skated with the gold medal-winning 2014 U.S. Men's National Under-18 Team and, earlier this winter, was a member of the 2015 U.S. National Junior Team.

RECORD BREAKERS

Team USA forward Jeremy Bracco has made a habit of setting records during his two years at USA Hockey's National Team Development Program. Last winter, Bracco set the single-season assists mark (58), and this season he climbed to the top of the career assists ranks, passing Patrick Kane and J.D. Forrest (tied at 88 each). Bracco is the first player in NTDP history to record over 100 career assists. Teammate Auston Matthews has also enjoyed a considerable amount of success this season. Matthews collected his 103rd point of the season against Slovakia Friday (April 17), passing Kane for the most single-season points in NTDP history. Additionally, he's just the second player ever to notch 100 or more points in a single campaign with the NTDP.

COLLEGE BOUND

A total of 17 players on the United States roster have committed to play college hockey at 11 different NCAA institutions. Hockey East Association foes Boston College and Boston University lead the way with three recruits each, while the University of Michigan and the University of Wisconsin from the Big Ten have a pair of commits each.

COACHING STAFF

The U.S. Men's National Under-18 Team is led by an experienced group of coaches. Head coach Don Granato is making his second appearance in that role at the U18 World Championship, having previously led the U.S. to a silver medal at the 2013 event. Granato also was behind the bench with the 2015 U.S. National Junior Team as an assistant coach. Assistant coach Nick Fohr served as an assistant on that 2013 squad. Assistant coach J.D. Forrest is making his first coaching appearance at the World Championship after participating in the 1999 event as a player. Matt Curley, who will work as an assistant coach this year, has previously served on the Under-18 World Championship coaching staff in 2011 (gold) and 2013 (silver). Goaltending coach Kevin Reiter worked in that same position last year, helping the U.S. Men's National Under-18 Team to a gold medal-winning effort in Finland.

AROUND USA HOCKEY

The U.S. Men's National Under-18 Team isn't the only USA Hockey squad competing on the international stage this spring. The U.S. Women's National Team recently secured the gold medal at the IIHF Women's World Championship in Malmo, Sweden, by knocking off rival Canada, 7-5, in the gold-medal game. The United States will be hosting the IPC World Sledge Hockey Championship April 28-May 4, at HARBORCENTER in Buffalo, New York. The U.S. National Sled Hockey Team won the World Sledge Hockey Challenge in February, just one year after claiming the gold medal at the Paralympic Winter Games in Sochi, Russia. The final IIHF tournament of the 2014-15 season is the Men's World Championship, slated for May 1-17, in the Czech Republic. Several players who have skated for the U.S. Men's National Under-18 Team are expected to be on the U.S. Men's National Team roster next month.

The U.S. Men's National Under-18 Team boasts a tournament-record eight gold medals all-time at the IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship. Recaps of each gold medal-winning tournament run can be found below:

2014 | Lappeenranta and Imatra, Finland | 6-0-0-1 (W-OTW-OTL-L)

The U.S. Men's National Under-18 Team opened the 2014 IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship with a 4-2 setback at the hands of Switzerland, but the loss marked the last time Team USA tasted defeat in the tournament. The U.S. closed its preliminary round schedule with wins over the Czech Republic, Denmark and Finland by a combined 14-3 score to roll into the medal round. After a 6-2 victory over Slovakia in the quarters and a 4-1 triumph over Sweden in the semis, Team USA clinched its seventh U18 gold medal with a 5-2 win against the Czechs.
