1. Do you have any children? Please list names, ages, and genders.
2. Do you have any pets? Please list types and if they live indoors or outdoors.
3. Does anyone in the house smoke? If so, where (inside, outside, garage)?
4. Does anyone in your family drink alcohol? If so, how often?
5. Describe your family's religious denomination / affiliation? Any special practices?
6. Describe the accommodations that are available for the player?
7. What chores would a player be responsible for?
8. How often and at what times can your player expect to have family sit down meals?
9. How do you and your family spend weekends and free time?
10. What is your opinion on players drinking, smoking, or disregarding team policy in your home?
11. Will you notify the housing coordinator if there are any concerns with your player or if the player is involved with any rule violations?

12. Would you be supportive if the player living with you was traded? Would you be willing to take another player?
13. Would you be able to give the player enough personal space and refrain from asking questions about the team?
14. Please take a moment to let us know how you would handle the following hypothetical situations:
- a. You repeatedly hear your player come in 15 to 20 minutes after curfew or hear him leave after curfew:
 - b. The player does not dress for a game for the fourth time in five games. The player makes it clear that he is doing great at practice and he is better than most of the other players on the team:
 - d. The player is spending most of his time with other teammates and / or his girlfriend. He is not around for meals and you barely see him other than in passing or after games:
 - e. You come home unexpectedly and find players and friends hanging out at your home. You suspect drinking violations. What would you do?
 - f. You are contacted by the housing coordinator and informed that due to some unforeseen circumstances the player needs to be moved:

Please Note:

All potential billets are subject to background check as well as an in home interview. An application is not a contract obligating you to being a host family; it is a preliminary step in the billet family process. For questions or further information please contact Dorian Nelson.
