

BRICK HOCKEY CLUB PARENT & SPECTATORS CODE OF CONDUCT

1. Do not force your children to participate in sports, but support their desires to play their chosen sport. Children are involved in organized sports for their enjoyment. Make it fun.
2. Encourage your child to play by the rules. Remember, children learn best by example, so applaud the good plays of both teams.
3. Do not embarrass your child by yelling at players, coaches or officials. By showing a positive attitude toward the game and all of its participants, your child will benefit.
4. Emphasize skill development and practices and how they benefit your young athlete. Deemphasize games and competition in the lower age groups.
5. Know the rules of the game, and support the officials on and off the ice. This approach will help in the development and support of the game. Any criticism of officials only hurts the game, and is strictly prohibited by any parents of Brick Hockey Club players.
6. Applaud a good effort in both victory and defeat and enforce the positive points of the game. Never yell or physically abuse your child after a game or practice – it is destructive.
7. Recognize the importance of volunteer coaches. They are important to the development of your child and the sport.
8. The period immediately following a game can be an emotional time for players, coaches and parents. If you wish to voice a concern or complaint to a coach about a particular player or game, you will wait at least 24 hours after that game to address the issue with your team's manager.
9. Social Media is a method of communication, and it is strictly prohibited for any player or family to post derogatory statements towards a BHC player, opponent, coach, opposing player, or opposing spectators using any social media venues including but not limited to: Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Flickr, Snapchat, Pinterest. Opinions of players and family members are not to be construed as those of the Brick Hockey Club.

I understand that if I break the Code of Conduct I will be subject to disciplinary action decided on by The Brick Hockey Club and its Executive Board.
