

SUMMER PRESEASON RANKINGS

- | | | | |
|-----------|--|--|---|
| 1 |  | MENOMONEE FALLS
INDIANS | The defending State Champions return a solid roster including 1st Team All-State Ty Weber. That makes them the clear favorite to repeat in 2016. |
| 2 |  | MUSKEGO
WARRIORS | Muskego is the class of the Classic Eight, having gone 25-4 last year and bringing back over half of their lineup. 1st Team All-State Caleb Wagner can hit with the best of them. |
| 3 |  | PEWAUKEE
PIRATES | The Woodland Conference may be better than at any time in its history. The Pirates, picked first in the West, return three-quarters of their Sectional winning lineup. |
| 4 |  | MILWAUKEE PIUS XI
POPE'S | Right on Pewaukee's heels in the West is Pius XI who is looking for revenge after their loss last year in the Sectional Finals. Fireballer Brett Smerz throws hard. Real hard. |
| 5 |  | OAK CREEK
KNIGHTS | Never overlooked because never out of it, Oak Creek won 27 games last year and return most of their starters. |
| 6 |  | MILWAUKEE MARQUETTE
HILLTOPPERS | Sal Bando, Jr.'s club will return a strong pitching staff from last year. If the Hilltopper offense progresses as expected, Marquette could end up on top of the hill in 2016. |
| 7 |  | WEST BEND WEST
SPARTANS | The Spartans went 27-3 last season and return the majority of their sticks. Pitching will determine if they can make a run at Mequon and winning the North Shore. |
| 8 |  | CUDAHY
PACKERS | The Pack is back. Picked to win the Woodland East, Cudahy returns three 1st Team All-Conference players, including their star pitcher, Brandon Stachowiak. |
| 9 |  | SOUTH MILWAUKEE
ROCKETS | The Rockets will challenge Cudahy for the Woodland East as they have one of the top pitchers in the area in Matt McCarty and a lot of quality players returning from 2015. |
| 10 |  | WAUKESHA WEST
WOLVERINES | The Wolverines lost five players to graduation, all of whom are playing collegiately this year. Lots of young talent in the wings are ready to take their places. |
