U.S. RECORD CHASERS

Last night (April 1), Declan Farmer (Tampa, Fla.) scored his 11th goal of the season, tying him with former national team members Taylor Lipsett (Mesquite, Texas) and Alexi Salamone (Buffalo, N.Y.) for most goals by a U.S. player in a single season. Additionally, Adam Page's (Lancaster, N.Y.) two goals last night gave him 38 in his career, surpassing Lipsett for most goals by a U.S. player since 2007. Farmer is tied with Lipsett for second all-time with 36.

Meanwhile, Kevin McKee (Chicago, Ill.) needs three assists to set the new single-season assists record, currently held by line-mate Brody Roybal (Northlake, Ill.) who tallied 13 last season. Also, Farmer is three points away from eclipsing the single-season point record of 21 points, which he set last season to tie Salamone.

TEAM USA TIDBITS TO KNOW

Including last season's 2015 IPC Sled Hockey World Championship, Team USA forward Adam Page (Lancaster, N.Y.) has now tallied 16 points (9-5) in Team USA's last eight games at HARBORCENTER in Buffalo, New York, the most of any player ... Declan Farmer (Tampa, Fla.) has tallied a point in every game this season and leads the U.S. with 19 (11-8) points through eight games this season. His 11 goals also lead the team ... Kevin McKee (Chicago, Ill.) leads the team with 11 assists through eight games ... Bo Reichenbach (Billings, Mont.) has yet to allow a goal this season in over 90 minutes of play.

ABOUT THE TOURNAMENT

Four teams are competing in the first-ever IPC Sled Hockey Pan-Pacific Championship: Canada, Korea, Team Pan-Pacific and the United States. Team Pan-Pacific is comprised of players from Canada, Japan and the United States. Tournament play includes a round-robin preliminary round in which the top two teams will advance to a winner-take-all championship game on Saturday, April 2.

CAPTAIN AMERICA

Josh Sweeney (Portland, Ore.) is serving as captain for the U.S. National Sled Hockey Team for the second consecutive season. Also returning are alternate captains Nikko Landeros (Johnstown, Colo.) and Josh Pauls (Green Brook, N.J.). A year ago, the trio led Team USA to an undefeated season and a gold medal on home ice at the 2015 IPC Sled Hockey World Championship in Buffalo, New York.

LEADING THE WAY

Jeff Sauer (Madison, Wis.), former men's ice hockey head coach at the University of Wisconsin and 2014 U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame inductee, is in his fifth season as head coach of the U.S. National Sled Hockey Team. Last season, Sauer led Team USA to an undefeated 12-1-0-0 (W-OTW-OTL-L) record that culminated with a gold medal at the 2015 IPC Sled Hockey World Championship here in Buffalo, New York. Since taking the helm in 2011, Sauer has guided Team USA to a 46-4-2-12 (W-OTW-OTL-L) record that includes reaching the championship game of every major international competition and titles in six major international events, including the 2016 World Sled Hockey Challenge in Bridgewater, Nova Scotia; the 2015 IPC Sled Hockey World Championship in Buffalo, New York; the 2015 World Sled Hockey Challenge in Leduc, Alberta; the 2014 Paralympic Winter Games in Sochi, Russia; the 2012 World Sled Hockey Challenge in Calgary, Alberta; and the 2012 IPC Sled Hockey World Championship in Hamar, Norway.

SEEKING FIFTH STRAIGHT INT'L TITLE

A victory this week would give the U.S. National Sled Hockey Team its fifth straight international tournament title. Team USA, which aims to reach its 10th straight international championship game, has claimed the 2016 World Sled Hockey Challenge in Bridgewater, Nova Scotia, in January; the 2015 IPC Sled Hockey World Championship in Buffalo, New York; the 2015 World Sled Hockey Challenge in Leduc, Alberta; and the 2014 Paralympic Winter Games in Sochi, Russia.
