LASSITER STUDENT ATHLETES SIGN WITH TOP UNIVERSITIES THROUGHOUT THE NATION

MARIETTA (April 13, 2016) — Lassiter High School senior student athletes signed national letters of intent with premier universities including Dartmouth College, University of Alabama Birmingham and Samford University.

The day's signees committed to playing soccer, baseball, track and field, basketball, football and lacrosse.

Danielle Okonta will represent the Lassiter Track and Field team at the Dartmouth College. Nathan Anthes plans to join the University of Alabama Birmingham baseball team. Lassiter's quarterback, Cooper Cross, will be on the Samford University football team in the fall.

The boys' soccer team is proudly sending Jeremy Gwaltney to Emmanuel College and Kaine Baker to LaGrange College. Tyler Kay and Davis Heitzman will be playing lacrosse at Limestone College and Tusculum College Tennessee, respectively. Kelsey Roberts plans to play basketball at King's College.

A total of twenty Lassiter students signed national letters of intent this year. These students have a combined 3.4 GPA proving their commitment not only to their sports but also their academics.

About Lassiter Athletics:

Since 1981, Lassiter High School has won 28 state championships in Georgia High School Association-sanctioned sports. Above all else the athletics program believes in promoting scholarly student athletes. More than wins, the program focuses on the character of the players, coaches and community. The entire Lassiter athletics community is bound together by common goals, determination, perseverance, and teamwork.
