

TIER 1 OR AAA GAMES THAT IMPACT A PLAYERS ELIGIBILITY FOR STATES.

No Tier 2 player may play in more than 5 Tier 1 or AAA games with: (a) a Tier 1 team or, (b) their own Tier 2 team or, (c) on a Tournament Roster, or they will be ineligible for the State Tournament.

All playing levels 10U through 18U are covered. What constitutes a Tier 1 or AAA game will be determined by SAHOF.

Games played with a player's own Tier 2 team or on a Tournament Team count towards maximum five games

All games played as a member of the Florida Alliance do not count towards maximum five games

An SFHL Tier 2 team may apply to play in more than one Tier 1 or AAA event for a total of two tournaments at the discretion of the SAHOF Tier 1 Committee. If granted, those games in the second tournament do not count against the maximum five games

Any games played on a High School roster against Tier 1 or AAA teams do not count towards the five maximum games.

Games played on a Tournament Roster whether sanctioned by SAHOF or not count towards the five maximum games.

Alliance players playing on a non-Alliance Tier 1 or AAA team, or games played with their SFHL Tier 2 team or a Tournament Team count towards maximum five games
