New Business:

1. Meeting called to order at 6:05 p.m.
2. Certifying Directors: Only if they plan to coach or help out/cover games and practices
3. NYSCA Certification is required for anyone that will be coaching or assisting, it is not necessary for occasional helper.
4. Directors are responsible for collecting from the Monies Owed list. They should not be handing out uniforms or equipment. The players will not participate until the money is paid.

5. SAFETY- as practices begin please be aware of the dry conditions, fields will be very hard and injuries will be abundant. Rest and water often please.

Old Business:

1. Website update- or issues. Online Registrations are a work in progress, our goal is to get coaches and directors using it more and more, we just need to be patient.
2. Equipment shed still needs shelving and could be organized again.
3. Parents and coaches should not be entering the equipment shed without a director.
4. Still hearing from concerned high school coaches that some in the Rec are not cooperative and very difficult to work with. Please attempt to establish positive working relationships.
  - a. Pete discussed that he attended a Coaches development meeting this past spring that spoke about communication with the rec program all the way through the high school age.
