HEAD COACH FROSTY WESTERING

Creation of a "PHD" football program — Pride, Hustle, and Desire — requires the services of a learned grid architect. Craftsman Frosty Westering has embellished his football theories through the formal educational process and practical on-the-field construction.

Dr. Westering, whose advanced degree is from Colorado State, is the builder, innovator, motivator, and strategist who secured, in his second PLU campaign, the Lutes' first outright Northwest Conference grid crown since PLU joined the league in 1965.

An offensive end at Northwestern and U. of Omaha, Frosty compiled a 47-21-3 prep record in his native Iowa. After eight years it was on to Parsons College where, in 1962, following a 10-0 season, he was named Iowa Collegiate Coach of the Year. Frosty carried the Athletic Director's portfolio at Parsons and later at Lea (Minn.) College.

Frosty, who is married and has five children, sports a 56-32-2 collegiate coaching record.

TURKEY INN

Where the "Inn" People Eat

"People who know money stay on top of rising prices with an account at State Mutual."

If you want to get out and really explore our great Northwest, you've got to be willing to take a few chances. But not with money. Not the way prices keep right on going up. Whenever you get a little extra money—a tax refund, an overtime check—put it into an account at State Mutual Savings Bank. Or buy a State Mutual Savings certificate. Steady high interest will keep you on top of rising prices, with full bank safety to boot. And, if you ever need a loan for one of those "luxuries" you've always wanted—a boat, a trip, a new car—there are friendly people at State Mutual's seven neighborhood offices ready to help. They have a big interest in you.

HIGH INTEREST ON SAVINGS WITH FULL BANK SECURITY.

It's Still the Same Old Story; Only His Position Has Changed

by Jim Kittilsby

It's still the same old Story at Willamette University. Punctuate him liberally with exclamation marks.

Bearcat senior Joe Story, the leading rusher in the Northwest Conference last year, averaging 63.3 yards per game, has averaged 65.5 yards per contest over the past two seasons!

With that background, he should run wild this year. Right? Wrong.

New head coach Tommy Lee, who made an auspicious debut by directing WU to a 14-9 win over Puget Sound, switched the 160 pound Hawaiian from tailback to flanker because the Bearcats lacked experience at the position and had an abundance of running backs.

Some observers initially considered the switch as tactically sound as converting Jascha Heifitz to bass drum. But it's paying off for Willamette, 4-1 thus far, their only setback coming at the hands of Linfield.

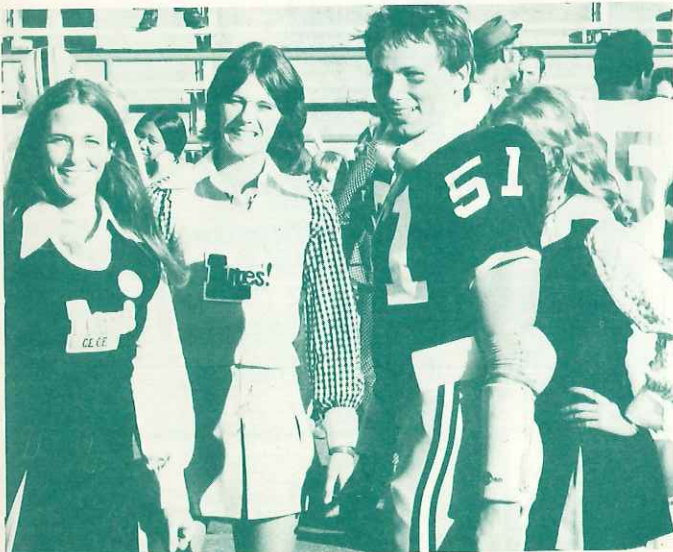

A favorite target of senior quarterback Dave Titus (both pictured on page 12) Story has put coach Lee in the same prophetic league as Jeanne Dixon. The veteran grabbed six passes for 88 yards against UPS. Last week Story sped to paydirt on a 48 yard pass from Titus, the margin of victory in the Bearcats 6-3 win over Whitworth.

"Story gets in the clear and if the ball is reachable, he's got it," says Lee.

In the latest league statistics, Story ranked as the number three receiver, Titus the number two passer.

PLU STATS: Rick Finseth's 290 yard passing exhibition against Lewis & Clark last week is a school record . . . Len Higgins now leads the NWC in punting with a 38.9 average.

NEXT GAME: AT LINFIELD, NOV. 2, 1:30 P.M.

RIGHTWAY RIDGWAY — Sophomore linebacker Steve Ridgway, pictured above with cheer/song leaders Cece Dempsey, Sue Westering, and Karoljane Johnson (partially hidden) has twice this season been named NWC defensive lineman of the week. In addition, Steve's earned small college player and Tacoma collegiate player of the week honors.

WE DON'T SETTLE FOR FIELD GOALS.

That's why the United States Marine Corps is a tough team to beat. And a tough team to make.

We want quality, not quantity.

If you've finished high school but haven't finished learning...

Or if you're a college man who is ready for leadership and responsibility...

If you've got it and you want to stand with the Marines, you'll be welcome.

Just keep one thing in mind: we make no compromises, no shortcuts, and only one promise—You'll be a Marine.

One of the few, and one of the finest.

ARE LOOKING FOR A FEW GOOD MEN.
