

Grand Junction Hockey Club

PLAYERS CODE OF CONDUCT

I am a Grand Junction Hockey Club youth hockey player and I understand that I am a representative of the GJHC youth hockey program and I will conduct myself within the governing rules, regulations and policies of USA Hockey, Colorado Amateur Hockey Association (CAHA) and GJHC.

As a GJHC player, I agree to the following:

1. Never argue with an official's decision while you are on or off the ice;
2. Treat your teammates, opponents, coaches, officials, parents and other fans with respect;
3. No bullying of your teammates, opponents, coaches, officials, parents or other fans;
4. No use of abusive language and/or actions or gestures;
5. Be on time to all practices and games;
6. Be ready to work hard to improve my skills, ability and effort;
7. Be a good teammate. I will support and appreciate the contribution each player makes to the team;
8. Conduct myself in a manner befitting a GJHC player on and off the ice. This includes all social networks, e-mail or text messaging. Inappropriate posts and messaging while a GJHC player will be grounds for disciplinary action and potential suspension;
9. Lean teamwork, sportsmanship and discipline. Always be a good sport and set a good example for everyone;
10. Respect the rink on home ice or away ice;
11. Dress appropriately for all games;
12. Respect the game of hockey.

Any player who exhibits play warranted as cheap, dirty, illegal or violent will be removed immediately from the ice and may result in disciplinary action as the coach(es) see fit; including suspension or expulsion from GJHC.

GJHC will not tolerate inappropriate or potentially harmful behavior. Should a player be suspended or expelled from the GJHC no fees will be refunded.
