Provincial Recognition Award

MATCH OFFICIAL of the YEAR AWARD

Saskatchewan Rugby is proud to celebrate our success stories and issues Provincial Recognition Awards. One of these awards is an annual award entitled MATCH OFFICIAL of the YEAR AWARD. Nominees must be registered with the Saskatchewan Rugby Union in the year of their nomination.

Nomination must include the following information:

- Details about the nominated person's contribution to Saskatchewan Rugby Union with a focus of attention upon their "recent" contribution.
- Their Match Official role(s) and their contribution to the sport in this (these) role(s).
- Details of the outcomes that can be attributed to this person's contribution.
- Information on how this person's contribution has assisted Saskatchewan Rugby Union.

Guidelines

- The award recipient must agree to have his or her name and photograph publicized. He/she must be prepared to promote the award as requested.
- All nominations must be accompanied by the names of two people who can report on the person's ability to meet the selection criteria. These individuals must be able to comment in detail upon the applicant's involvement in Match Officiating.
- Nominations may come from any individual registered with the Saskatchewan Rugby Union or a club or sub-union or Saskatchewan Rugby Referee Society.

Selection Criteria

- Demonstrated experience that identifies skills, knowledge and attributes of a leader of Match Officials.
- A professional attitude and a professional approach to performing as a Match Official despite the amateur status of the role.
- A demonstrated history of continuous personal development as a Match Official demonstrated by attendance at workshops, seminars, clinics, etc.
- A history of acting as a mentor of other Match Officials.
- Ambassadorial qualities that will enhance the image of the Saskatchewan Rugby Union and the Match Officials of this province.

Match Official Recognition Selection Committee:
The selection committee will consist of 5 people.