CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

In order to qualify for a credential, an applicant must represent the recognized news organization requesting credentials. Please contact Leann Parker, athletics communications director, for information on how to apply for single game or season credentials.

CREDENTIAL PICKUP

Credentials may be picked up at the stage door entrance in the loading dock of the Schottenstein Center two hours before game time.

MEDIA ENTRANCE/VALUE CITY ARENA PRESS BOX

All media should enter the arena through the stage door in the loading dock of the arena. After picking up credentials (if necessary), turn left and take the second elevator (by the Boardroom) you come to on the left to the press box.

PARKING PASSES

Media parking is available on a single game and season basis. Contact Leann Parker for information on parking. Members of the media should park in the lot directly west of Value City Arena. Facility parking attendants will assist you in finding the lot.

WIRELESS AND ETHERNET ACCESS

Information on connecting to the media wireless network in Value City Arena is available in the press box.

Ethernet and POTS connections are available for visiting team radio broadcast teams both in the press box and on the concourse level radio position.

GAME NOTES AND LINE CHARTS

Ohio State and opponent line charts and game notes are available in the press box two hours before faceoff. Conference notes and standings also are provided. Shot charts and box scores are distributed at the end of each period, with a final book produced postgame.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

For photographers, there are camera cut-outs in the northeast and northwest corners of Value City Arena, with a sign-up sheet located in the press box (on a game by game basis). Additional still photographer locations are located on the arena level through the glass and on the concourse level. Please be advised, flying pucks can be dangerous. Enter the photography areas at your own risk.

ROAD REQUESTS

Please direct all credential requests for Ohio State road games to the host school's sports information director.

PRACTICES

The hockey team practices in Value City Arena and at the OSU Ice Rink. Practice times vary according to academic schedules, contact Leann Parker for specifics.

Still photography and video requests of Ohio State players and coaches should be e-mailed to parker.387@osu.edu.

WEEKLY INTERVIEWS

Media wishing to conduct interviews with Ohio State coaches and student-athletes should contact Leann Parker. Please call at least one day in advance to allow setup time. One day a week (typically Wednesday) before or after practice usually is reserved for the media.

POSTGAME PROCEDURES

The Ohio State locker room is closed to the media. At all home games, the postgame interview format will be as follows: after a 10-minute cooling off period, the visiting coach and players (if requested) will be escorted to the interview room, located in the southeast corner of the arena level in Value City Arena. After visiting interviews are completed, Buckeye head coach Steve Rohlik and requested Ohio State players will report to the interview room.

STEVE ROHLIK HEAD COACH

SEVENTH SEASON, WISCONSIN '90

Steve Rohlik, through his first six years as the head coach of the Ohio State men's hockey team, has led the program back into the national picture. The Buckeyes have made three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, including a Frozen Four berth in 2018 (the first for the program in 20 years). In 2018-19, he guided the squad to the first Big Ten regular season title in program history and the school's first conference regular season crown since 1972.

Rohlik, the 2018 and '19 Big Ten Coach of the Year and two-time AHCA National Coach of the Year finalist, including a runner-up finish in 2018, was named the ninth head coach in Ohio State men's hockey history in April 2013 after spending three years as the Buckeyes' associate head coach. He has more than 20 years experience as a Division I coach and during his career has recruited and/or coached two Hobey Baker Award winners, 16 All-Americans – including Buckeyes Brady Hjelle, Ryan Dzingel, Mason Jobst and Tanner Laczynski – and nearly 20 players who have reached the NHL. He has a career and Ohio State record of 113-84-28 through 2018-19.

Under Rohlik, the Buckeyes have been outstanding academically, combining as a team to post a grade-point average of 3.0+ throughout his tenure. He has had 39 players combine for 79 Academic All-Big Ten accolades and 46 accumulate 106 Ohio State Scholar-Athlete nods. Sean Romeo was recognized with the NCAA Elite 90 Award at the 2018 Frozen Four. In 2018-19, 16 Buckeyes were invited to the Ohio State Scholar-Athlete Dinner and 13 earned Academic All-Big Ten accolades.

On the ice, the team has posted three-straight 20+ win seasons, led the NCAA on the power play in 2016-17 and on the penalty kill in 2017-18. The team has ranked in the Top 10 in scoring offense and in the Top 12 on the power play three of the last four years. The Buckeyes allowed just 2.07 goals a game in 2017-18, the best mark in program history.

The 2018-19 campaign began with high expectations for the team, as it was selected first in the Big Ten preseason poll and began the year ranked in the Top 3 in the national polls, moving to No. 1 before the squad even played its first game. It was the first time Ohio State was atop a national poll since three weeks in fall 1983. The Buckeyes responded to the expectations, winning the B1G regular season crown with a 13-7-4-3 record and a nine-point cushion in the final standings. Ohio State earned a third straight NCAA bid, matching the feat set by the program from 2003-05. Rohlik was the unanimous choice for Big Ten Coach of the Year, Sasha Larocque was voted B1G Defensive Player of the Year and Tommy Nappier was the B1G Goaltender of the Year and a Mike Richter Award semifinalist. Mason Jobst was a Hobey Baker Award finalist (the fifth in Ohio State history), became the program's second two-time All-American and was one of four Buckeyes to earn first/second team All-B1G accolades. Tommy Parran was the program's first Hockey Humanitarian Award Top 5 finalist and Larocque was a Senior CLASS Award finalist. Ohio State ended the year 20-11-5 for a third straight 20-win campaign.

The 2017-18 squad notched one of the best campaigns in program history, ending the year 26-10-5 (never losing more than two games in a row) and finished second in the Big Ten with a 14-8-2-1 ledger while also advancing to the league tournament championship game (an overtime loss). A No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament for the first time in program history, Ohio State topped Princeton and defending NCAA champion Denver in the Midwest Regional to reach the program's second Frozen Four and the first since 1998. The squad, which ended the year a program-high third in the national polls, ranked in the Top 10 in the NCAA in scoring offense, scoring defense, power play, penalty kill, fewest penalty minutes per game, wins and winning percentage. Four Buckeyes earned All-Big Ten first/second team accolades, Laczynski was a Second Team All-American and Romeo was both a Mike Richter Award finalist and the NCAA Elite 90 Award winner for the highest grade-point average among players at the Frozen Four.

In 2016-17, Rohlik led the Buckeyes to the NCAA Tournament, the first appearance for the squad since 2009. The team notched its first 20-win season since that time, with a record of 21-12-6, including an NCAA-best 13 road wins. In B1G play, the squad was 11-8-1-1, finishing in third place, just one point behind second. The team ranked in the Top 3 nationally in scoring offense (3.92 gpg) and was first on the power play (31.6%), with a Top 10 point scorer (Jobst, who earned First Team All-Big Ten and Second Team All-American honors) and Top 3 goal scorer, with three Buckeyes in the Top 5 among B1G point getters.

Rohlik's first season at the helm of the Buckeyes (2013-14) also marked the first year of men's hockey as an official Big Ten Conference sport. He led the team to a spot in the inaugural Big Ten Tournament championship game, with an overtime win in the quarterfinals vs. Michigan State and an upset of No. 1-ranked and top seed Minnesota in the semifinals before an overtime defeat in the final. The squad was 18-14-5 overall in 2013-14 (6-9-5-4 in B1G play). In his second year, the Buckeyes (14-19-3, 8-11-1 B1G) ended the season strong, going 7-4-1 in the last 12 games, and reached the conference tournament semifinals. The 2015-16 Buckeyes (14-18-4) were 8-8-4 in Big Ten play, advanced to the B1G tourney semifinals and closed out the year undefeated in eight of their last nine games, ranking in the Top 10 in the NCAA in scoring offense on the year.

Rohlik joined the Ohio State program in 2010 after 10 seasons on the coaching staff at Minnesota Duluth (2001-10) where the squad advanced to two NCAA Tournaments, including a Frozen Four appearance in 2004, and won the 2009 WCHA playoff title. He was part of the staff that put together the roster of the Bulldogs' 2010 NCAA Championship squad.

Rohlik coached three seasons at Nebraska-Omaha, joining the program for its inaugural campaign in 1997-98. In the team's first campaign as a member of the CCHA (its third year as a Division I team), the squad advanced to the 2000 CCHA Tournament final.

Rohlik spent five years as the head coach at Hill-Murray High School, his alma mater, in Saint Paul, Minn., posting a 107-20-1 ledger and leading the squad to two Minnesota State High School Tournaments, including a runner-up finish in the 1993 Tier I event and fourth place in 1997 Class AA before joining the UNO Mavericks. He also served one-season assistant coaching stints at Wisconsin (1990-91) and Stillwater (Minn.) High School (1991-92).

A native of Saint Paul, Minn., Rohlik is a 1990 graduate of Wisconsin. A four-year letter-winner for the Badgers, he wore the captain's C in both 1989 and 1990. He was a senior on the squad that won the NCAA title, as well as the WCHA regular-season and tournament crowns, and was named the WCHA Tournament MVP that season. The team qualified for the NCAA Tournament each of his last three seasons and also captured the 1988 conference playoff championship. Rohlik skated in 166 games for Wisconsin, scoring 34 goals and adding 47 assists for 81 points, and received the team's Fenton Kelsey, Jr. Most Competitive Player honor in 1990. He was an eighth-round selection by the Pittsburgh Penguins in the 1986 NHL Entry Draft (No. 151 overall).

In his second year, the Buckeyes captured the program's first Big Ten regular season title and the school's first regular season conference championship since 1972 and earned an at-large berth into the NCAA Tournament, finishing the year 20-11-5.

In April, he was named to the U.S. National Junior Team staff for the fourth consecutive World Junior Championship. Miller has been a part of three straight medal-winning teams. Prior to joining the Buckeyes, Miller served as the director of hockey at Air Force for two seasons. In 2017 the squad won the Atlantic Hockey Championship and advanced to the NCAA Tournament quarterfinals, falling to Harvard, 3-2.

A winner of the prestigious AHCA Terry Flanagan Award, Miller helped coach Providence to its first NCAA title and was on staff for two NCAA titles with Denver. During his 19 and a half years with the Pioneers, Miller worked with all aspects of the team, with a focus on the defense. He recruited two defensemen who went on to win the Hobey Baker Memorial Award – Matt Carle in 2006 and Will Butcher in 2017. The 2004 Denver team was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame as part of the Class of 2014.

Prior to Air Force, Miller spent the 2014-15 season at Providence as the associate head coach, as the Friars claimed the NCAA Championship, defeating Boston University in the title game, 4-3, at TD Garden in Boston. He was the first general manager and head coach of the Madison Capitols in the United States Hockey League after a long career at the University of Denver.

In all, he has been a part of 19 NCAA appearances, five regular season titles and seven playoff championships, along with three NCAA titles.

Miller began his coaching career at his alma mater, St. Mary's University of Minnesota. The squad won the 1989 MIAC playoff championship and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament. He moved from there to Miami University, where he spent three seasons, two as a graduate assistant coach and one as assistant coach, under head coach George Gwozdecky, winning the program's first CCHA title in 1993. Miller moved with Gwozdecky to Denver in 1994.

In 1988 he helped St. Mary's to its first MIAC championship in 23 years and the team set the school record for victories in a season (22), a mark that still stands.

2018-19 YEAR IN REVIEW

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Ohio State claimed the Big Ten regular season championship, the first B1G title in program history and the program's first regular season crown since 1972. Mason Jobst clinched the title with a 3x3 overtime goal at Michigan Feb. 23. Ohio State had a nine-point edge on second place in the final standings, the largest margin from first to second in the six-year history of the league. Teams two through seven were separated by seven points.
- The Buckeyes earned a spot in the NCAA tournament for the third year in a row and the ninth time in program history.
- The Buckeyes were ranked first in the national polls for part of the year, the first time at No. 1 since November/December 1983.
- Big Ten Medal of Honor winner Mason Jobst ended his career as one of the most outstanding players in program history. He is the second Buckeye to be two-time All-American and was a Hobey Baker Award Top 10 finalist, the fifth in program history. He recorded the most career points for a Buckeye in 30 years and ended his career as the all-time conference leader in goals and points in Big Ten games only. The two-time team captain was a three-time All-Big Ten selection, the second Buckeye to earn first/second team all-conference honors three times.
- Brendon Kearney was the Derek Hines Unsung Hero Award winner. The award was established in honor of former Army player Derek Hines, who was a "consummate team player and team builder," who was killed in the line of duty Sept. 1, 2005 in Afghanistan. The winner is someone who displays exemplary sportsmanship, is supremely competitive, intelligent and extraordinarily conditioned with an unmatched work ethic. The contributions of this individual, on and off the ice, cannot be measured by statistics alone.
- Tommy Nappier and Sasha Larocque were honored as the Big Ten Goaltender of the Year and B1G Defensive Player of the Year, respectively, the first Buckeyes to win major Big Ten end of season awards.
- Steve Rohlik was unanimously voted the Big Ten Coach of the Year, winning the award for a second straight season.
- Tommy Parran became Ohio State's first Top 5 finalist for the Hockey Humanitarian Award. The award is presented annually to a student-athlete who makes significant contributions not only to his or her team but also to the community at large through leadership in volunteerism.

LEGEND

* Big Ten (B1G) game

• Central Collegiate Hockey Association (CCHA) game

(exhib.) Exhibition Game - results not included in season totals

OT - Overtime Game

(SW)/(SL) - shootout win/shootout loss. In 2008-09 the CCHA implemented three-round shootouts to determine winners when conference games are tied after regulation and a 5-minute overtime. The Big Ten began using the shootout when the league started in 2013-14 through 2018-19, when a 3x3 overtime period was added before a sudden death shootout occurs. In seasons where the three-round shootout was used, the conference record indicates W-L-T-SW. Shootout wins/losses are only noted for conference games.

(3x3W)/(3x3L) - 3x3 overtime win/3x3 overtime loss. In 2018-19 the Big Ten implemented a 5 minute sudden-death overtime of 3x3 hockey when games are tied after regulation and a 5-minute overtime. (If the game is still tied after 3x3, a sudden-death shootout is held.) In seasons where the 3x3 overtime was implemented, the conference record indicates W-L-T-3x3W/SW. Shootout wins/losses are only noted for conference games.

VALUE CITY ARENA

IT WASN'T JUST ANY FACEOFF...

Jan. 2, 1999, 7:08 p.m.

As Hugo Boisvert lined up across from Michigan's Bobby Hayes on Jan. 2, 1999 and swept the puck to his left, it marked more than just the beginning of a typical CCHA Saturday night game.

It wasn't just any goal.

When Chris Richards ripped a slapshot from a near impossible angle past Michigan's Josh Blackburn, it was more than merely one of the 100 points he scored in his career.

It wasn't just any crowd.

With over 17,000 tickets sold for the game, fans braved the worst snowstorm of the year – one that nearly shut down the city of Columbus – to help blow the roof off.

At 7:08 p.m. on Jan. 2, 1999, the official scorer didn't write down the start time of a new game. He wrote down the start time of a new era.

The determination, desire and hard work of hundreds of people came to fruition in January 1999 when the Ohio State hockey team played its first game in the finest collegiate hockey facility in the nation – Value City Arena.

The 2017-18 season marks the 19th year the Buckeyes will play their entire home schedule in Value City Arena. In its first season, Ohio State played its final 12 home games in the arena, as construction of the facility was completed in the fall.

Home to the Ohio State men's hockey team as well as the OSU men's and women's basketball teams, the $105 million, state-of-the-art sports and entertainment complex serves as a prominent and fitting gateway to the Ohio State University campus. Integrated into the campus architecturally, the center contains three tiers of seating and more luxury suites than any other university arena. It is the largest collegiate hockey facility in the nation and hosted the 2005 NCAA Men's Frozen Four, the first time it was played in an on-campus arena since 1983.

Value City Arena features an ice surface of NHL dimensions (200' x 85') and also houses the Ohio State hockey coaching offices. The Buckeyes enjoy the comforts of one of the finest hockey lockerrooms in the United States, featuring study areas, a players lounge and entertainment center, individual lockers with maple wood trim, a state-of-the-art sound system and the most advanced air filtration system available.

The facility is more than 10 stories tall. Value City Arena also was the first university arena to contain an exclusive donor area – the Huntington Club – which provides an elegant setting for Ohio State hockey luncheons, banquets and other functions.

Upon entering the facility, it becomes apparent aesthetics was at the forefront of the designers minds. Value City Arena is the only collegiate facility in the United States that includes beautiful terrazzo floorscapes. Designed by internationally recognized artist Alexis Smith, terrazzo is a combination of colored stone set in different pathways and channels to form a floorscape. Six total floorscapes were created in the building – one in each of the four rotundas and two additional on the east side of the building. The hockey floorscape combines features from four OSU hockey players – Paul Pooley, Mike Rousseau, Jamie Crapper and Benji Wolke. Terrazzo also was used to floor the concourses and restrooms in Value City Arena. In all, more than 70,000 square feet of terrazzo was used at a cost of nearly $2 million.
