Bobby Bell first signed with the California Angels' minor league team, the Palm Spring Angels, in 1986 as a catcher and third baseman. He played three seasons, primarily playing catcher. After Bobby's career as a player he spent ten years as a Hitting Coach for the Miami Marlins Organization. In 2013, Bobby managed for Miami's Gulf Coast League team. This is Bobby's fourth time returning to this baseball/softball clinic.

Taylor Schwarz won Defensive Player of the Year her senior year of high school. During college, she played four seasons for the Florida Gators as a first baseman. Taylor is ranked first in Gator history with turning double plays. She caught the final out to clinch the Gators 2014 and 2015 NCAA Championships. Taylor is now an editorial fashion assistant at Vogue Magazine. This is Taylor's first time attending this baseball/softball clinic.

Joe LeFebre played ball at Eastern Oregon University where he later coached. He also coached Paradise Valley Community College as well as at several other colleges. Joe was the head coach of Moon Valley High School in Phoenix, Arizona, from 1995-1998 compiling 117 wins. Joe has been a Pro Scout for many years, currently for the New York Yankees. This is Joe's fourth time returning to this baseball/softball clinic.

Kelsey Stewart played for USA's National Softball team, helping the team achieve a few gold and silver medals in recent years. She played four seasons for the Florida Gators as a utility infielder during college.

Kelsey is ranked first in Gator history in batting average, hits, runs scored, total bases, triples, and stolen bases. This is Kelsey's first time attending this baseball/softball clinic.
