August 6-9, 2018 - Brentwood Ice Rink

About SLUH

Founded in 1818 as a Latin school for boys, St. Louis University High School is the oldest private Catholic high school west of the Mississippi River.

SLUH is ranked in the top seven percent of schools in the nation for highest composite ACT score.

Recognized as an Exemplary High Performing National Blue Ribbon School for 2015, and is consistently ranked among the 'Best Schools' in America by Niche, the largest website for researching K-12 schools.

In addition to academic excellence, SLUH enjoys a rich tradition of athletic success, a strong commitment to the arts and a dedication to the development of faith based on serving others.

Head Coach - Jack Behan

Behan's coaching career is distinguished by five national championships with the St. Louis Jr. Blues (2004-07, 2010), in addition to 10 national tournament and eight championship game appearances. A seven-time Mid-States High School All-Star Chicago Showcase coach and two-time USA Hockey Select coach for 17U in Lake Placid, NY, he won two Mid-States Challenge Cup State Championships with Parkway South (1994, 1995). Behan is coming off of a 34-1 season that saw the Jr. Billikens win their 2nd Missouri State High School Hockey Championship (2013 & 2018). He also becomes the first coach in the history of Mid-States Hockey to win a state championship with two different teams.
