2000 FOOTBALL COACH OF THE YEAR

ARLIN LIKNESS
Yankton High School

Long known as one of this state's fine football coaches, Arlin led his Yankton Bucks to the Class AA championship last fall. It was in his first year as the Yankton head coach, after serving as an assistant for five years.

Arlin had previously coached at Hamlin, where his teams won three state Class B titles. He owns a 130-33 record as a head coach.

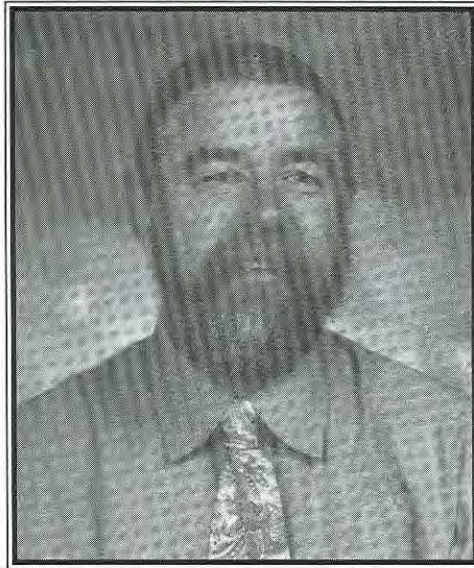

Likness' statement, "Respect and communication are the building blocks of our program," speaks for itself and to his success.

2000 BOYS CROSS COUNTRY COACH OF THE YEAR

FORREST FLAAGAN

Rapid City Stevens High School

The strong Rapid City Stevens cross country teams again won both the boys' and girls' championships under the tutelage of Forrest Flaagan. And he earned the title of Boys Cross Country Coach of the Year.

The Stevens boys' team garnered their fifth straight title in a strong field. The girls' team won their seventh title in a row. Flaagan offered this advice, "It is important for young people to understand that practice is preparation for opportunities and success."

2000 GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY
COACH OF THE YEAR

JEFF SYLLIAASEN
Garretson High School

Jeff Sylliaasen has coached both the cross country and track teams in Garretson for the past twenty-five years. This year his harriers brought home the state championship.

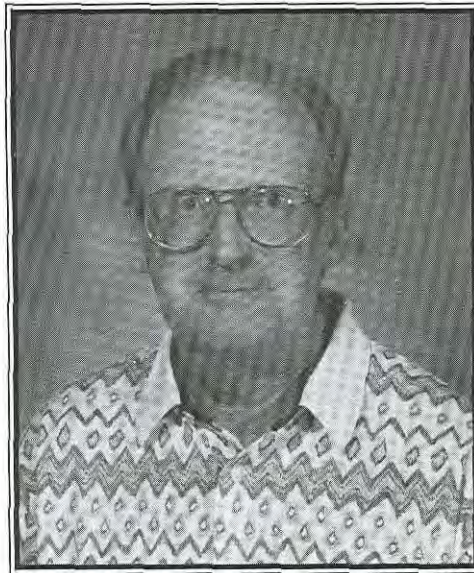

Garretson has been competitive under Jeff's direction for a number of years, including five straight conference championships. This season's great success made Sylliaasen the Girls Cross Country Coach of the Year in South Dakota.

1999 GIRLS BASKETBALL COACH OF THE YEAR

DOUG GROTH

Selby High School

Doug Groth just completed his thirty-third year of high school basketball coaching - both boys' and girls' teams, and in both of the Dakotas.

His undefeated Selby area Lions not only presented him with a South Dakota championship, but handed him his 800th coaching win. During his eleven-year tenure at Wyndmere, North Dakota, he also won a state title.

For his girls' great season, Groth has been named the state's Girls Basketball Coach of the Year.

2000 GYMNASTICS COACH OF THE YEAR

LINDA COLLIGNON

Madison High School

This past February, the Madison High Lady Bulldogs were crowned the state's Class A top gymnastics team for the sixth straight year. Linda has been their coach for the past eight years.

"I want to help every student athlete I coach to achieve her goals in all areas of her life and to reach her full potential," coach Collignon stated. This is a lofty goal, toward which she works.

For her outstanding success, Linda Collignon has been named the Gymnastics Coach of the Year.

2000 VOLLEYBALL COACH OF THE YEAR

KATHY GRAVES
Northwestern High School

Kathy Graves never played high school volleyball, but her impact on the sport has been greater than any player she has ever coached. She guided Northwestern to back-to-back State "B" championships these last two seasons. In the past decade, the Wildcats were also runners-up four times.

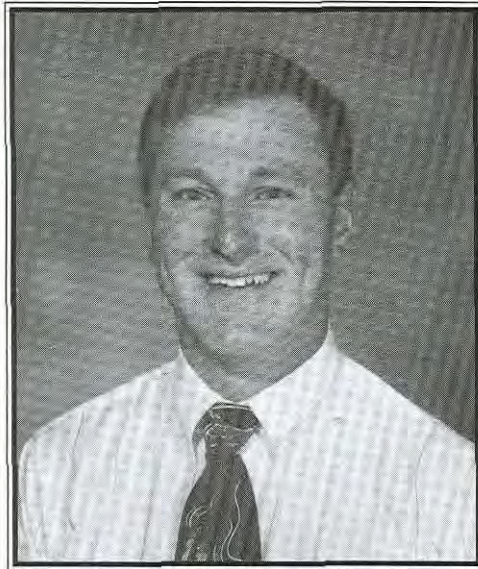

Kathy has coached fourteen years at Northwestern and said she loves the people she works with. Though the award has her name on it, she accepted it on behalf of the kids, saying "You don't go anywhere without talent."

2000 WRESTLING COACH OF THE YEAR

JOHN DONOVAN

Harding County High School

The Harding County wrestlers made the best run in their athletic history at the South Dakota Class A wrestling championship this past season. They took third place behind outstanding teams from Howard and Harrisburg.

"We had a great bunch of athletes," said their veteran coach, John Donovan. "We expect to be good again next season."

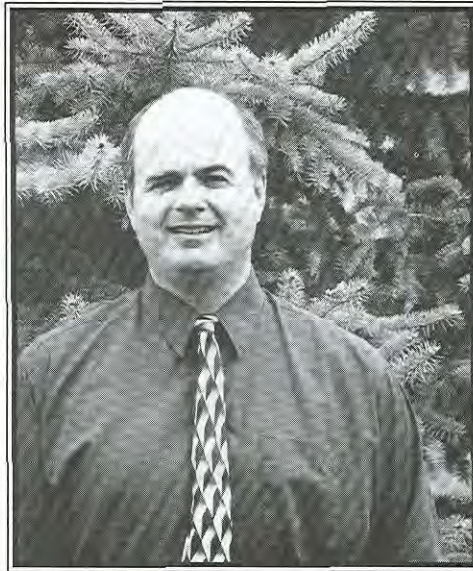

Donovan was selected as South Dakota Wrestling Coach of the Year for the Harding County success story.

2000 BOYS BASKETBALL COACH OF THE YEAR

DAN SABERS

Tripp-Delmont High School

After almost two decades of frustration, veteran Tripp-Delmont coach Sabers brought his Wildcats through the state Class B tourney with a championship. They worked their way through the state's toughest region to bring the crown home to a proud Hutchinson County community and school.

The Tripp Wildcats last won the championship in 1965 and had been building toward making a serious run at it this past season. "I've coached a lot of good teams," Dan said.

For his team's success, the 17-year coaching veteran, Dan Sabers, reigns as this year's Boys Basketball Coach of the Year.

2000 GIRLS TRACK COACH OF THE YEAR

CURTIS SAGE
Marion High School

This season the Marion Bears finished just one point behind the championship team during the State Class "B" Track Meet. The team began the season with modest, realistic goals. "We didn't have a lot of numbers, but we had quality athletes who were willing to work hard."

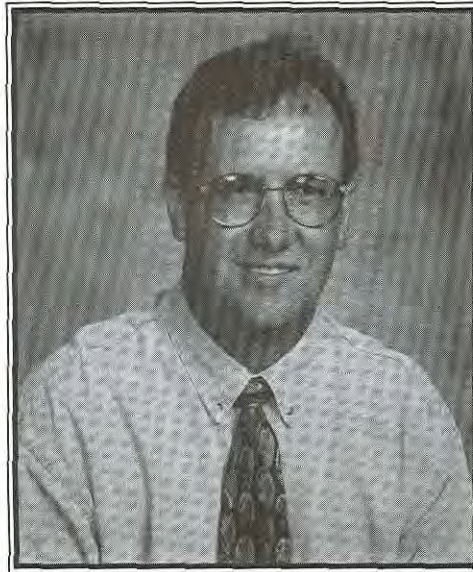

Coach Curtis Sage had thirteen varsity runners on the team. Only two were seniors, and four were eighth graders. The Marion squad promises to be a contender in the future.

2000 BOYS TRACK COACH OF THE YEAR

SCOTT MUCKEY

Corsica High School

Scott Muckey has been coaching boys' track at Corsica since 1983. During those eighteen years, their teams have won thirteen conference championships, six region and one state championship. Through the years, he has coached basketball and football and refereed basketball and volleyball. Since 1992 Scott has also coached the girls' track team.

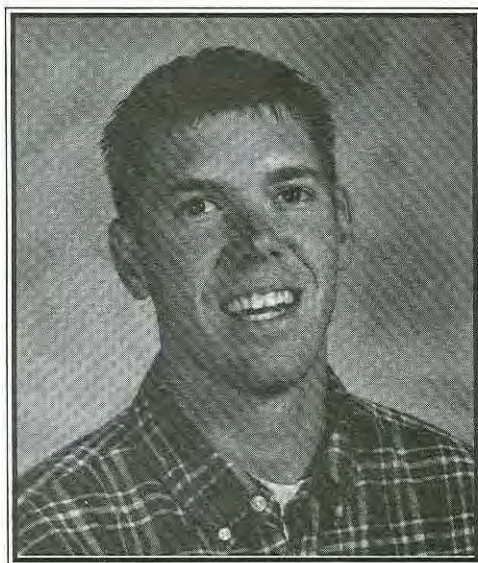

Scott began a local Hershey Track Meet for Corsica youth in 1994 and continues his involvement with it. He helped the community raise funds to construct an all-weather track; and when completed in 1998, Corsica hosted its first high school meet.

2000 TENNIS COACH OF THE YEAR

MATT JOHNSON

Sioux Falls Washington High School

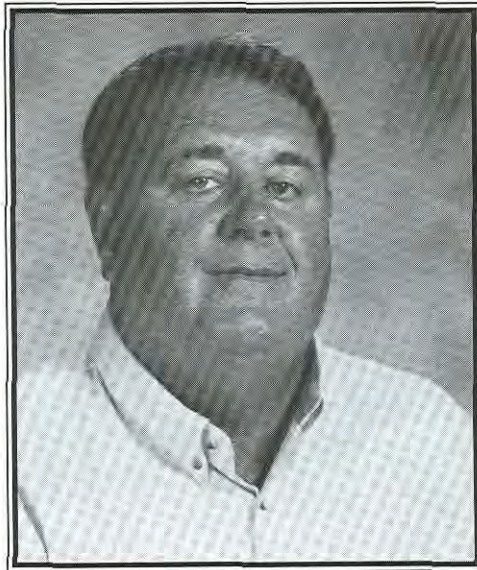

While Matt was a senior at Augustana College he was the boys' assistant sophomore basketball coach at Roosevelt. After graduating, he moved to Omaha and continued coaching basketball and tennis.

When Matt returned to Sioux Falls to teach, the assistant boys' tennis position at Washington High School was available in the spring of 1997. The following year he became head tennis coach, and his team placed fourth at the state level. In '99 the Warriors took third place, and this past season the team went 19-0, for a conference and a state championship.

2000 GOLF COACH OF THE YEAR

ROD GARRISON
O'Gorman High School

After graduating from Southern State College in Springfield, Rod's teaching and coaching duties have covered three states and thirty-one years. He has spent the last twenty-one years at O'Gorman High School teaching and coaching football, track and golf. During these past sixteen seasons as head coach of the girls' golf team, his teams have won seven state titles, been runner-up four times, plus third, fifth and sixth-place finishes. His teams have also won twelve conference titles.

2000 SPIRIT COACH OF THE YEAR

MICHELLE KOCH

Stickney High School

The Stickney cheerleaders, although small in numbers, captured three important titles during this past season. They first the Class "B" first place at the state cheerleading event in Huron, then got the Spirit Award at the annual Hansen Classic. They topped that off by winning the Spirit of Six Award at the Class "B" Basketball Tournament in Aberdeen.

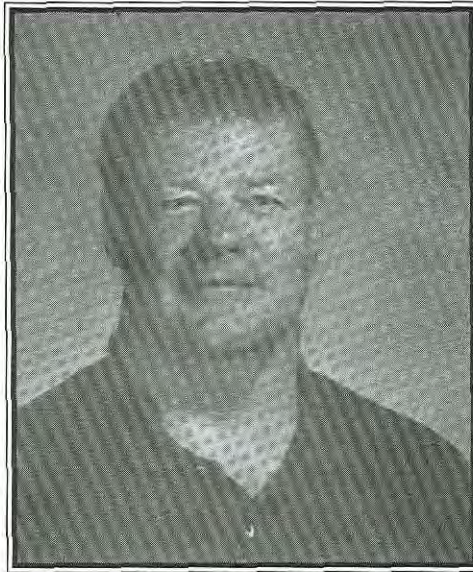

For their great year, Michelle Koch has been named the Spirit Coach of the Year. Giving the credit to her cheerleaders, Koch said, "They are very, very dedicated. It takes a lot of time and a lot of practice." This is Michelle's seventh year as Spirit coach at Stickney.

2000 ASSISTANT COACH OF THE YEAR
IN BOYS' SPORTS

LARRY HOLLAND

Howard High School

Larry Holland has been the assistant wrestling coach for the Howard Tigers for the past twenty-two years. Howard's head coach, Ken Ruml, gives Holland a great deal of credit for the Tigers' outstanding mat program. "He does whatever it takes to help young kids and our program," Ruml said of his aide.

Larry Holland is also recognized in the state as an outstanding administrator of wrestling tournaments. His dedication is widely known and admired.

2000 ASSISTANT COACH OF THE YEAR
IN GIRLS' SPORTS

DIANE BRASKAMP
Madison High School

A great deal of the success of the Madison Lady Bulldogs' gymnastic program belongs to assistant coach Diane Braskamp, according to their head coach, Linda Collignon.

"Diane's commitment to our girls and our program goes beyond the call of duty," Collignon said. "She has been very instrumental in Madison's success."

For her dedication these twenty years, Braskamp has been named the Assistant Coach of the Year in Girls' Sports.

Volunteers do everything there is to do in Special Olympics and more. They are fund-raisers, cheerleaders, administrators, food handlers, chauffeurs, chaperones, trainers, coaches, huggers, publicists, policy makers, trash collectors, friends, comrades and supporters of Special Olympics.

They serve without salary, without recognition, without honors or awards. Special Olympics could not do without them - their devotion, their work and their love.

So "thank you" volunteers! You represent the highest values of the human spirit. You get your thanks, not in money or words or praise, but through what you do for Special Olympics.

For, as the poet E.A. Robinson said, "There are two kinds of gratitude; the sudden kind we feel for what we take and the larger kind we feel for what we give". That larger kind of gratitude is what Special Olympics feels for you!

"Let me win, but if I cannot win, let me be brave in the attempt."
