

Log in to My SportsEngine Account

In order to use any of SportsEngine's tools, you must be logged in to your account. To log in just follow the steps below.

1) Click Login

From your organization or team website, click the Login button in the top left-hand corner. If you don't see it here, the button may be all the way at the bottom of the page in the site footer. You can also log in directly to your dashboard from this link.

2) Sign in with your username, google account, or facebook account

To sign in using your username, type in your SportsEngine username and password and click Sign In. If you do not remember your username, you can type your email address into the username field instead. No worries if you forgot your password, just click forgot? to reset it (see below).

If you created your SportsEngine account using your google account or facebook account, you will be able to sign in using those accounts by clicking Sign in with Google or Sign in with Facebook. Next click Allow from the google page or Okay from the facebook page. Make sure to select the google account that you originally created the SportsEngine account with if you have multiple google accounts.

Troubleshooting & FAQ

I forgot my password, how do I reset it?

Don't worry if you forgot your password. To reset it just click forgot? next to the password field. Click here for the complete instructions on resetting your password.

I want to change my login email

You can change your login email or add a secondary login email from the Account Settings tab of the member dashboard. Click here for the complete instructions on changing your login email.

I can't log in through my google or facebook account

You will only be able to log in through these accounts if you created your SportsEngine account using google or facebook originally. If you have multiple google accounts, you will only be able to login through the google account that you used to create the SportsEngine account.

I have an account, but want to join a new organization

If you are trying to join an organization on SportsEngine but you already have a SportsEngine account with another organization, then all you will need to do is login and click Become a Member on the new organization's website. This will add you to the organization's membership directory and allow you to receive communications and website permissions. Click here for more info about becoming a member.
