MATCHDAY PREVIEW

RENO 1868 FC RETURNS TO WARM WEATHER, HOME CROWD AT GREATER NEVADA FIELD

RENO, Nev. – Reno 1868 FC returns to Greater Nevada Field on Saturday when the club hosts Colorado Springs Switchbacks FC in an important Western Conference showdown.

Kickoff for Saturday's match is slated for 6:45 p.m. with gates opening at 5:45 p.m.

Reno 1868 FC will be looking for its first win of the 2018 season and break an all-time series draw against Colorado this Saturday. Reno is coming off a heartbreaking 1-0 loss to Phoenix Rising FC on March 31 at Greater Nevada Field.

Reno 1868 FC players said that despite not having a win through its first three matches, they remain upbeat and focused.

"(The mindset) remains the same since the beginning, it's the fourth game," midfielder Seth Casiple said. "Guys are trying to get comfortable playing with each other, making sure we are doing the right things and fix the little mistakes. it's a long season and it's just another game."

Head coach Ian Russell echoed Casiple's sentiments and said it's a huge plus for the reigning scoring champions to be back at Greater Nevada Field.

"Every team wants to play at home," Russell said. "Whether we're at home or on the road, I feel like we're in a position to win games."

"And obviously having that week off before our next match helps."

Switchbacks FC is 2-3 this season, sitting in ninth place and is coming off a 2-1 win over Rio Grande Valley FC. Jordan Burt, who was one of the highest-scoring defenders in 2017, leads the squad with two goals in 2018.

Reno and Switchbacks FC last played in the preseason with the Switchbacks taking a 1-0 win in Reno. The regular season series is tied at 1-1.

Prior to Saturday's match, Reno will hold its first ever "Halfway to Oktoberfest" upstairs at Greater Nevada Field. Fans who are 21 years or older can purchase a $15, all-you-can-drink pass that is good from 4:45 p.m. until halftime of Saturday's match. Fans can purchase that pass (promo code: OKFEST) and tickets at Reno1868FC.com/tickets or by calling the ticket office at 775-334-7001.

KEVIN PARTIDA HOME AT LAST

BY ALDO AMATO

KEVIN PARTIDA: HOME AT LAST

RENO, Nev. – Life is unpredictable.

Nobody knows this truth more than Reno midfielder Kevin Partida, who has experienced life's highs and lows over the past year.

Partida was signed by Reno 1868 FC in March shortly after being drafted by the San Jose Earthquakes in the third round of the 2017 MLS SuperDraft. A high point for the young, promising player who was able to return to his hometown where he made a name for himself at Sparks High School.

"I think since the beginning, it's been exciting knowing I'm about to be back in my hometown," Partida said. "It's been exciting to be able to play at the next level in front of friends and family."

Being drafted by the Earthquakes and coming back to his hometown, was certainly a high after a roller coaster of a year. Back in July of last year, Partida's older brother Jose passed away after a drowning accident in Lake Tahoe.

Jose was 27 years old.

While the loss of his brother deeply affected the then-senior standout, Partida took comfort in knowing his friends, family and coaches were there for emotional support.

"It's definitely been a roller coaster and there have been a ton of different emotions over the past year now," Partida said. "But I try to keep pushing through, with the support system of my family which is another big part of being back close to home."

"To now be able to see my friends and family every single day, makes it a lot easier."

KEVIN PARTIDA: HOME AT LAST

Sparks and the Northern Nevada community has always been a part of Partida's life. Partida credited his coaches from an early age to Sparks High School to his Northern Nevada Soccer League family in helping him mold into the player he is today.

Partida is awaiting his debut with Reno 1868 FC, which could come at any point during the early half of the USL season. Until that point, Partida said he's happy to be close to home, with a strong support system and is eager to make the most of his opportunity whenever it is given.

"I think you have to stay positive and understand that opportunity will come," Partida said. "I'm just excited to add another chapter to the journey."

SCENARIOS FOR U.S. OPEN CUP

RENO, Nev. – Reno 1868 FC is set to play in the U.S. Open Cup for the second year in a row next month.

Reno will play the winner of the Portland Timbers U-23 v. Kitsap Soccer Club (May 8, 7 p.m.) match on May 16 with the possibility of playing at Greater Nevada Field at 7:30 p.m.

Portland must beat Kitsap Soccer Club in order for that home match to happen. If not, Reno will travel to travel to Bremerton, Wash.

"The opportunity to play in the U.S. Open Cup is always an honor in American soccer, especially with the chance of having homefield advantage," Reno GM Andy Smith said. "The possibility of adding an extra match for our fans is always an exciting prospect."

Reno 1868 FC made it to the third round of the Open Cup last season falling 2-0 to rival Sacramento Republic FC. Reno's next match is set for April 14 against Colorado Springs Switchbacks FC at 6:45 p.m.

Tickets for that match can be purchased at Reno1868FC.com/tickets or by reaching the main ticket office at 775-334-7001.

IAN RUSSELL HEAD COACH

Russell played for the University of Washington and later started his professional career with the Seattle Sounders of the USL First Division in 1998 and 1999. Russell was drafted by the San Jose Earthquakes in 2000 and continued to play seven seasons in MLS. Six of those seasons came with the Earthquakes, where Russell helped the team win two MLS Cups in 2001 and 2003. In 2008, Russell returned to the Earthquakes as an assistant coach, a position he held for eight seasons. He helped lead the club to the postseason twice, while earning the Supporters' Shield for best regular season record (19-6-9) in 2012. Russell was also instrumental in the Quakes' international and collegiate scouting efforts, and briefly helped oversee the club's youth development as the academy's technical director. He served as the Earthquakes interim head coach for the final two games of the 2014 season and holds a U.S. Soccer Federation "A" coaching license.

CHRIS MALENAB ASSISTANT COACH

Malenab joins Reno 1868 FC after spending the past four years as an assistant coach and video analyst at Sacramento Republic FC. During the 2014 inaugural season of the Sacramento Republic FC, Malenab served as an assistant coach to Predrag Radosavljević (Preki) during the club's championship campaign. From 2015 to 2017 Malenab served as video analyst for the Sacramento Republic FC under head coach Paul Buckle. Malenab started his coaching career coaching and serving as technical director at various youth clubs in the greater Sacramento area while coaching high school soccer. Along with his youth coaching experience, Malenab has served as an assistant coach at the college level, at Cosumnes River College (NJCAA), California State University Stanislaus (NCAA D-II) and San Joaquin Delta College (NJCAA).

CASEY TATE ASSISTANT COACH

Tate joined the Reno 1868 FC staff in 2017 and served as an Assistant Coach under Head Coach Ian Russell for the inaugural season. He came to Reno 1868 from the University of Nevada where he spent 8 seasons as the Assistant Coach for the Wolf Pack Soccer program, being promoted to Head Coach Interim for the 2016 season. Tate helped lead the Pack to two postseason appearances and in 2016 posted the program's highest win total since its inaugural season in the Mountain West Conference. He has also been involved in the Reno/Tahoe youth soccer community for the past eight years and was the Director for several elite local clubs.
