1.01 Principal and Business Office: Verona Wildcats Youth Hockey Association, Inc., (hereafter "Association") may have such principal and other business offices within the State of Wisconsin, as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the Association may require from time to time.

Article II. Objectives

2.01 Opportunities: The Association is a non-profit, educational organization formed to provide a healthy, competitive and educational program of recreational hockey to youth 19 years of age and below who are eligible to compete in USA Hockey, the Wisconsin Amateur Hockey Association ("WAHA") and the Dane County youth hockey programs. The primary emphasis of the program shall be on "the development of skills in skating and the sport of hockey."

2.02 Philosophy: The philosophy of the Association is to emphasize individual participation by providing relatively equal attention to players during practices and relatively equal playing time in scheduled games. The philosophy of play does not, however, apply where an individual team member has not participated in scheduled practice sessions, demonstrates attitudes or displays conduct not conducive to good team morale or sportsmanship, or is being disciplined by the coach.

Article III. Members

3.01 Number of Members: The number of the youth and teams in each age group shall be left to the discretion of the Board of Directors. Active membership shall be limited to those youth who have applied, paid their fees and who have been approved by the Board of Directors.

3.02 Priority: Membership shall be granted on a priority basis first to eligible members of the previous year and then to new registrations.

3.03 Parents and Guardians: Parents or guardians of active member players shall automatically be regarded as members of this organization. These parents or guardians will be expected to encourage, promote and assist in carrying out the organization's activities. A family membership represents one (1) vote in the Association and may be cast by a single representative.

3.04 Coaches: Association coaches with no youth as participants in our hockey programs are granted an automatic membership and the right to cast a vote at general meetings. There will be no registration fee for coaches without children in the program.

3.05 Cooperation: It shall be the responsibility of each active member to cooperate to assure the proper and successful operation of the Association.

3.06 Attendance to the Board: Any active member may express an opinion or present a topic before the Board of Directors provided he or she informs the President at least one week in advance of the next scheduled meeting of the subject matter he or she wishes to present.

Article IV. Meetings

4.01 Annual Meeting: The annual meeting of the Association shall be held at the date and hour in each year set forth by the President, or at such other time and date within thirty days before or after said date as may be fixed by or under the authority of the Board of Directors, for the purpose of electing directors and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting. If the day fixed for the annual meeting shall be a legal holiday in the State of Wisconsin, such meeting shall be held on the next succeeding business day. If the election of directors shall not be held on the day designated herein, or fixed as herein provided, for any annual meeting of the Association, or at any adjournment thereof: the Board of Directors shall cause the election to be held at a special meeting of the Association as soon thereafter as reasonably possible.

4.02 Special Meeting: Special meetings of the Association for any purpose or purposes, unless otherwise prescribed by statute, may be called by the President or the Board of Directors or by the person designated in the written requests of the holders of not less than one-tenth of all members of the Association entitled to vote at the meeting.

4.03 Place of Meeting: The Board of Directors may designate any place, either within or without the State of Wisconsin, as the place of meeting for any annual meeting or for any special meeting called by the Board of Directors. A waiver of notice signed by all members entitled to vote at a meeting may designate any place, either within or without the State of Wisconsin, as the place for the holding of such meeting. If no designation is made, or if a special meeting be otherwise called, the place of meeting shall be the principal business office of the Association in the State of Wisconsin or such other suitable place in the county of such principal office as may be designated by the person calling such meeting, but any meeting may be adjourned to reconvene at any place designated by vote or a majority of the members represented thereat.

4.04 Notice of Meeting: Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten days nor more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally, by email or by United States Mail by or at the direction of the President, or the Secretary, or other officer or persons calling the meeting, to each member of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States Mail, addressed to the member at their address as it appears on the records of the Association, with postage thereon prepaid.

4.05 Voting Records: The officer or agent having charge of the membership records for the Association shall, before each meeting of the Association, make a complete record of the members entitled to vote at such meeting or any adjournment thereof. Such record shall be produced and kept open at the time and place of the meeting and shall be subject to the inspection of any member during the whole time of the meeting. Failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall not affect the validity of any action taken at such meeting.

4.06 Quorum: Except as otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, members holding one-tenth of the votes entitled to be cast, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of members. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the majority of the members represented at the meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter shall be the act of the Association unless the vote of a greater number is required by law or the articles of incorporation. When a meeting fails to meet the requirements of a quorum, a majority of the members so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice.

otherwise provided in the proxy, a proxy may be revoked at any time before it is voted, either by written notice filed with the Secretary or the acting Secretary of the meeting or by oral notice given by the member who has filed his proxy. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution, unless otherwise provided in the proxy. The Board of Directors shall have the power and authority to make rules establishing presumptions as to the validity and sufficiency of proxies. (2) The Association shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Association to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Association, or is or was serving at the request of the Association as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Association, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

adoption. Any action taken or authorized by the Board of Directors, which would be inconsistent with the Bylaws then in effect but is taken or authorized by affirmative vote of not less than the number of Directors required to amend the Bylaws so that the Bylaws would be consistent with such action, shall be given the same effect as though the Bylaws had been temporarily amended or suspended so far, but only so far, as is necessary to permit the specific action so taken or authorized.
