

2018-2019 Traveling Basketball: Scholarship Application

North St. Paul Basketball has a limited number of player scholarships available for situations involving financial hardship. Financial assistance is determined by the income criteria used by the National School Lunch Program for free and reduced-price meals. To be considered for a financial scholarship a NSPB Scholarship Application form must be submitted with a current copy of the player's School District #622 Child Nutrition Free/Reduced verification letter.

If approved by the NSPB board, a code will be issued for online registration for one of the following discounted registration amounts:

$100 discount off of the registration fee – for free meals (this does not include the volunteer fee)

$50 discount off of the registration fee – for reduced meals (this does not include the volunteer fee)
