SECTION 13: DISCLAIMERS

These procedures are based on IWBF rules and regulations as presently known and understood. Any change in the selection procedures caused by a change in IWBF rules and regulations will be distributed to the affected athletes immediately. The selection criteria are based on the latest information available to the NWBA.

However, the selection criteria are always subject to unforeseen, intervening circumstances, and realistically may not have accounted for every possible contingency. If any force of nature, pandemic, or force majeure, should cause the alteration or cancellation of any of the selection events listed in this document, these selection procedures may require revisions.

SECTION 14: CONFLICT OF INTEREST

All members of the Selection Committee (Section 7.3) must comply with the NWBA Conflict of Interest Policy, to include completing and submitting a disclosure form consistent with the NWBA's Conflict of Interest Policy before convening the committee.

Any member of the Selection Committee (Section 7.3) who has an actual, possible, or perceived conflict of interest must disclose it to the NWBA's ethics committee prior to the start of the selection process and/or recuse him/herself from the review process and/or voting. A conflict of interest exists when a personal, family, financial, professional, club, team or business interest of the committee member poses a direct or indirect relationship, connection, or affiliation, past or present, with an athlete in contention for the applicable team selection that could compromise the committee member's ability to participate in the selection process in a fair and impartial manner.

If a conflict exists, the NWBA's Ethics Committee shall review the conflict and determine the committee member's level of involvement (e.g., whether that committee member must recuse him/herself from participating in discussions and/or voting). For example, if it is determined that a committee member must recuse him/herself from voting, the Ethics Committee may still determine that a committee member who has relevant and necessary information with respect to athlete performance, for example a national team coach or high performance director, may, if requested by the Selection Committee (Section 7.3), provide such information to the committee so long as such information is provided in a fair and unbiased manner and so long as the committee member with the conflict of interest does not vote toward the final decision. The committee member must not otherwise influence other members of the committee in the selection process.

Additionally, any person with a good faith belief that a committee member has a conflict of interest may report the alleged conflict of interest to the NWBA Ethics Committee by submitting a Policy Violation Report: <https://www.nwba.org/applications>. Reports may also be made anonymously through the USOPC's Integrity Portal. No committee member shall retaliate in any way against a person who, in good faith, reports an alleged conflict of interest. In addition, the USOPC maintains a strict no retaliation policy that prohibits any employee, contractor, agent, volunteer, or member of the USOPC to take or threaten to take any action against an athlete for reporting information to or seeking assistance from the Office of the Athlete Ombuds.

Any recused individual shall be replaced by the NWBA High Performance Committee in consultation with the NWBA Ethics Committee.

APPENDIX A

Recognizing that a Team is more than the skills brought by its individual players, the NWBA High Performance Team Selection Committee (Section 7.3) will consider the mix of players in terms of positions, balance of sport classes, experience, match-up vs. international opponents, consistently demonstrating the potential to perform at an elite level, team needs, and player qualities beyond statistics and technical skills that contribute to the overall team's success.

Expectations

Players are expected to:

- possess individual fundamental skills;
- possess team skills;
- place team goals ahead of personal goals;
- be quick, fast, and well-conditioned enabling the team to play the up-tempo, full-court style of play necessary for success on the international stage;
- demonstrate the capacity to sustain elite performance throughout the tournament/ camp;
- be able to play individual and team defense in the half-court and full-court;
- be able to play with and without the ball, and;
- demonstrate the capacity to learn and implement new concepts on the court.

Other Considerations

- Balance of expertise in positions and roles
- Presence of experience and leadership
- Player interactions and team cohesiveness both on and off the court
- Player ability to respect the coaches, staff, and other players
- Player exhibited maturity on and off the court

- Individual player performance and statistics from scrimmages
- Testing results
- Previous National Team reporting compliance-if applicable

Characteristics

- Teamwork: The willingness to accept a role that leads to team success.
- Positive Attitude: Exhibiting enthusiasm and support of teammates.
- Versatility: Exhibiting a balance between offensive and defensive skills as well as the ability to play multiple positions and fulfill multiple roles.
- Maturity: Exhibiting an ability to adjust to various situations and dealing with adversity. Adjusting to situations that are not going well and reacting appropriately.

Athleticism: Do you have speed in the full court and quickness in the half-court? Are you at your optimum strength and endurance? Without these attributes, you will not be able to handle the pace of our game plan.

Defensive Ability: Do you have the character, work ethic, and mental toughness to relentlessly deny your opponent the opportunity to play the game? It is as much attitude as technique. We will be looking for mental fortitude and technical skill.

Ball Handling Ability: Do you take care of the ball, especially under pressure (with both hands)? Are you a passer (with both hands)? Do you see the floor and read the defense well? Passing well will be a premium.

Shooting: Are you a shooter, or are you a scorer? Are you consistent? Can you create and finish? When training on your own, do you shoot volume? Individual training should include game shots in game-like situations.

Rebounding: Do you have a "nose" for the ball? Are you quick to the ball? Are you willing to battle? Do you have grit? Rebounding is a talent, but it is human-driven. Like defense, it is mostly attitude!

Offensive Ability: Do you have the skills necessary to be a threat with and without the ball? Do you see the floor, and can you read defenses and react quickly to outplay your opponent? Are you selfless? We will be looking for individual ability AND team players.

Intelligence: Do you have basketball common sense? How fast do you learn new systems? Can you consistently apply these strategies to game situations? We are looking for quick learners with the discipline to modify their individual game as needed to best suit the team's needs.

Passion: Do you have a passion for the game? You may have the best technical skills, but if you don't have the passion, you will perform below your potential! This intangible quality becomes evident when we see a love of the sport within an athlete who wants to overachieve as a student of the game.

Leadership: Are you a leader, or are you a follower? We are looking for team members willing to help the team reach its goals. We recognize that leadership comes in many forms, and we want players that demand the best of themselves and their teammates on the court and off at all times.

Responsibility: Do you meet deadlines and achieve your goals? Are you taking care of yourself physically and mentally while training away from the team? Are you utilizing the many resources available exclusively to Team USA athletes? How well do you communicate your needs to those around you? Being part of Team USA means you are accountable to yourself, your teammates, the staff, and team goals.

Communication: Communication is foundational to any team's success. Communication includes the ability to receive (listening and understanding) and send (delivery of your message in either spoken or written form). How well do you communicate with others? In games and training, how do you communicate nonverbally and verbally? To be successful, we need great communicators on the court. Being part of Team USA means being part of a decentralized program. We rely heavily on timely communication and weekly check-ins with staff while not at training camps or competitions. We are looking for athletes that are great communicators on and off the court.
