

USA HOCKEY PLAYER DEVELOPMENT CAMPS

BOYS NATIONAL 17 FESTIVAL

June 25 - July 1, 2024 • The Northtown Center • Amherst, N.Y.

PROGRAM & SCOUT BOOK

ATTENTION:

All scouts, family advisors, coaches, etc.

Contact with the players during this week's player development camp is strictly forbidden. We have produced a Scout Book, for your purchase, with the players' contact information. We sincerely hope that several of these players will draw the interest of your program. However, this week, the players have a demanding schedule and are in a very competitive environment. Please allow them to maintain their focus on the task at hand.

USA Hockey and the players appreciate your cooperation with this policy. Please understand that violation of this policy can result in removal from the facility.

If there is any information that you might need, please don't hesitate to ask the camp director.

SPECTATOR'S CODE OF CONDUCT

- Display good sportsmanship. Always respect players, coaches and officials.
- Act appropriately; do not taunt or disturb other fans; enjoy the game together.
- Cheer good plays of all participants; avoid booing opponents.
- Help provide a safe and fun environment; throwing any items on the ice surface can cause injury.
- Do not lean over or pound on the glass; the glass surrounding the ice is part of the playing area.
- Support the referees and coaches by trusting their judgment and integrity.
- Be responsible for your own safety; be alert to prevent accidents from flying pucks and other situations.
- Respect locker rooms as private areas for players, coaches and game officials.
- Be supportive after the game, win or lose. Recognize good effort, teamwork and sportsmanship.

Welcome

Welcome to Amherst, New York, and The Northtown Center for the 2024 USA Hockey Boys National 17 Festival.

USA Hockey Player Development Camps provide America's top hockey players in each age group age-appropriate on- and off-ice training and instruction, as well as the opportunity for players to compete nationally against other players from their age group.

This camp features 12 teams and 216 players from each of USA Hockey's 12 Districts who will compete in games in addition to daily instruction and practices.

USA Hockey would like to thank all of its current and former players for their participation in this event, as well as the parents, staff and volunteers for their support.

For clarity, this includes youth, girls and junior age classifications. USA Hockey continues to strongly recommend the use of neck laceration protectors for adult players.

FROM PLAYER DEVELOPMENT CAMPS TO PROFESSIONAL HOCKEY

PWHL and NHL rosters were littered with Player Development Camp alumni during the 2023-24 season. Of the 302 American-born players to play in an NHL game this season, 205 attended a USA Hockey PDC during their youth career. On the women's side, of the 57 Americans to take part in the inaugural PWHL season, 53 participated in a PDC.

Among the USA Hockey PDC alumni is four-time Olympian and U.S. Women's National Team captain Hilary Knight. Knight, who currently plays for PWHL Boston, has fond memories of her time participating at USA Hockey Player Development Camps.

"When I was younger I tried to get to every single USA Hockey Player Development Camp," said Knight. "I remember marking the date on the calendar because I remember being so excited to have an opportunity to represent your country with the best of the best, get together, meet other girls across the United States, and have fun."

Taylor Heise, the first overall pick of the inaugural PWHL Draft to Minnesota and a fellow member of the U.S. Women's National Team, skated at Girls U18 Select Camp in 2015, 2016, and 2017. Last season, Heise went to Girls 16/17 Camp to provide some words of advice and encouragement for the players.

"Just enjoy the process. I'd go to a camp and three days would pass by in a blink of an eye," said Heise. "The biggest thing is to experience this, have fun, but also know that hockey is the main focus of this, and learn a lot."

On the men's side, the impact of USA Hockey player development across all levels continues to be a difference maker. This season marked an all-time high for the percentage of American-born players making up NHL rosters at 29.5%, and over two thirds of American-born NHL players in 2023-24 were USA Hockey PDC alumni.

Among these players is Columbus Blue Jackets forward Johnny Gaudreau. Gaudreau is also currently a member of the U.S. Men's National Team, and he recently became the all-time leading scorer for the U.S. at the IIHF Men's World Championship. Before becoming a Hobey Baker winner at Boston College and an NHL All-Star, Gaudreau was a standout at the 2010 USA Hockey Boys Select 17 Camp, where he was the leading scorer with 12 points (5g, 7a) in five games.

Carolina Hurricanes forward Jake Guentzel is also a USA Hockey Player Development Camp alumni. Guentzel participated at Boys Select-17 Camp in 2011, where he impressed with eight points in five games.

A number of players who made their NHL debuts in 2023-24 honed their skills at USA Hockey Player Development Camps, including Carolina Hurricanes forward Jackson Blake, who recently made his NHL debut after wrapping up a stellar sophomore season at the University of North Dakota, where he was named a top-three finalist for the Hobey Baker Award. Blake starred at the 2019 Boys Select 16 Camp, where he was named an All-Star.

USA Hockey Player Development Camps continue to provide a unique opportunity to compete with the best players from around the country at every age group, developing elite players who go on to contribute at the professional, collegiate, and junior levels.
