Player Code of Conduct

(Please each box after reading)

When we are involved in any and all CVIHC activities:

- I understand that our team has a Zero Tolerance Rule about violating or breaking any of the rules of this pledge; I agree that the result of breaking any of these rules is to miss playing time (shifts, periods, games).
- I will attend all practices and games unless I make arrangements with the coach. I will obey the coaches' team rules.
- I will give teammates and coaches' encouragement, assistance, confidence, and show my appreciation whether or not the game was won or lost and whether or not I or any of my teammates played well or made a mistake or missed a play.
- I will not "mouth off", swear, use bad language or criticize teammates, coaches, referees, nor do the same to any of our opponent's players or coaches.
- I will not physically show my frustration by banging sticks (boards, benches), making gestures, or committing penalties against opponents (such as "retaliating, pushing, shoving, elbowing during play or after the play has stopped). I will not engage in fighting my teammates or opponents and will shake hands with my opponents and with all referees after every game unless directed not to by my coaches or referees.
- I will not engage in any form of physical or verbal bullying or hazing of my teammates.
- I will not quit playing or complain when games or practices are tough.
- I will not destroy or vandalize any ice facility, home or away and will pay any and all financial fines that I incur.
- I understand that my objectives are to have fun, improve my skills, learn the rules, and improve my abilities as a hockey team and team players.

- I understand that the CVIHC has a Zero Tolerance Rule about violating or breaking any of the rules of this pledge; I agree that the result of breaking any of these rules may require the CVIHC Disciplinary Board to investigate my behavior or the player I am supporting at the game or practice and this may lead to disciplinary action suitable to the offense.
- Do not force your child to participate in sports, but support their desires to play their chosen sport. Children are involved in organized sports for their enjoyment. Make it fun.
- Encourage your child to play by the rules. Remember children learn best by example, so applaud the good plays on both teams.
- Don't embarrass your child by yelling at players, coaches or officials. By showing a positive attitude toward the game and all of its participants, your child will benefit.
- Emphasize skill development and practices and how they benefit your young athlete at all ages. De-emphasize games and competition in the lower age groups.
- Know and study the rules of the game, and support the officials on and off the ice. This approach will help in the development and support of the game. Any criticism of the officials only hurts the game.
- Applaud a good effort in both victory and defeat, and enforce the positive points of a game. Never yell at or physically abuse your child after a game or practice - it is destructive. Work toward removing the physical and verbal abuse in youth sports.
- Recognize the importance of volunteer coaches. They are important to the development of your child and the sport. Communicate with them and support them.
- Conduct or language that is profane, obscene, vulgar or deliberately offensive is prohibited.
- Physical or verbal abuse of any hockey player (including a parent's own child), any parent, coach, official, spectator or other participant is prohibited.
- Conduct which is unsuitable for the sport of hockey is prohibited.
- Enjoy the game, learn all you can about hockey and volunteer.

SOCIAL MEDIA POLICY

Cumberland Valley Ice Hockey Club (CVIHC) is dedicated to the development of well-rounded youth through positive sports competition. We strive to promote good sportsmanship from our players, coaches, and parents. CVIHC is dedicated to the support of the players and coaches by adhering to both the CPIHL and the CVIHC Codes of Conduct and these responsibilities extend into social media sites. Inappropriate material found on social media websites affects the perception of the student, the team, and the CVIHC and are grounds for discipline.

When using social media websites, please consider the following:

1. Always present a positive image. Do not do anything that hurts the integrity of yourself, the team, your family, or CVIHC.
2. Be positive and respectful, and always take the high road. When disagreeing with others' opinions, remain appropriate and polite.
3. Do not post content that would harm CVIHC or damage CVIHC's reputation. Remember that even while you are on our own personal time, you are a representative of CVIHC and people may interpret your online postings or social interactions as though they were official CVIHC statements.
4. Use good judgment when posting comments on any official CVIHC sites. Bear in mind that your comments can create liability for CVIHC. If you are unsure whether a comment is appropriate to post, either do not post it or obtain prior approval from the Board or your coaches.
5. Be smart about what you publish. Once something is posted, it exists online forever. Ask yourself "would I want to see this published in the newspaper or posted on a billboard tomorrow or ten years from now?" If the answer is "no," do not post.
6. Encourage others to engage in positive interactions on social media. If you are concerned about any CVIHC member's use of social media, please bring your concerns to the attention of your coach or a member of the CVIHC Board.
7. Personally identifiable information (information such as a name and date of birth and/or a street address which, when taken together, can identify a particular individual) should not be disclosed in any manner on official CVIHC social networking sites without the approval of the coaches or the CVIHC Board of Directors.
8. Employers and academic institutions both check social media websites on applicants. You are your own personal brand and you are building an online identity that matters not only to you personally but also professionally.
9. Before posting material, please consider whether it upholds and positively reflects on your own values and ethics as well as that of the CVIHC.

Violations of the Social Media Policy: The CVIHC shall have the authority to monitor and enforce this Social Media Policy. The CVIHC and any individual appointed by the Board shall have the authority to remove any inappropriate or offensive comments from official CVIHC sites and to pursue actions toward any individual or organization posting on any social media platform if they determine, in their sole discretion, that such actions are in the best interests of the CVIHC.
