

2018 RAYB Parent Survey Results

Survey responders by league (N=122)

Satisfaction

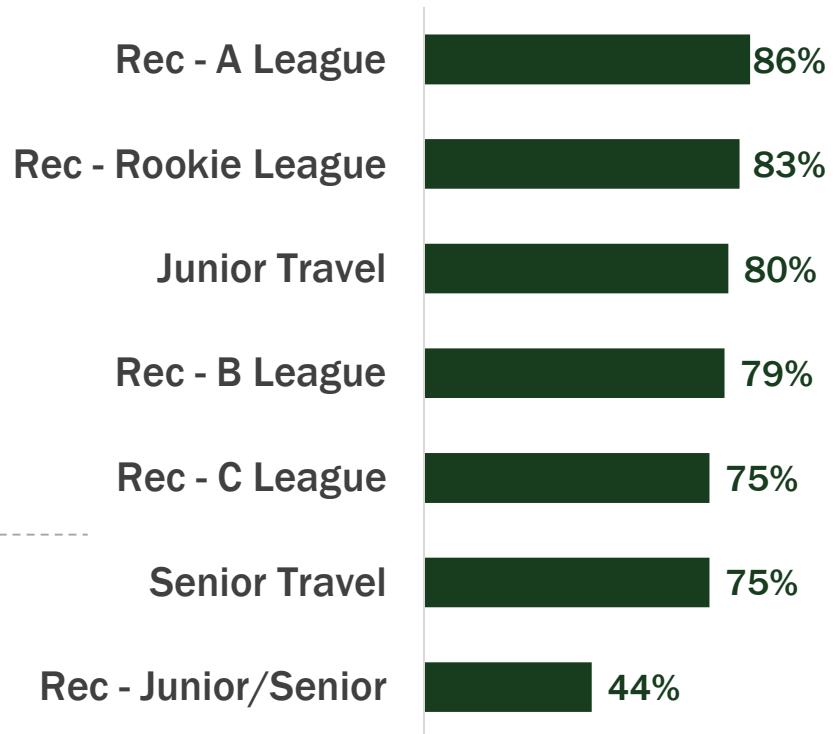

95% said they are likely to return next year

75% said travel opportunities were explained sufficiently

Team website

% finding team page helpful by league

Overall, 75% found the team web page helpful

If the team page was not helpful, what would make it better?

- Team page on RAYB website is unnecessary: GameChanger, SportsEngine, coach emails are sufficient (n=12)
- Difficult to navigate, confusing, not current (n=3)
- Make contact info easier to find (n=1)

Suggestions

Player development

- Field improvements: Parkview/Bruce Russell, lights, batting cages (n=11)
- Teams too large/inadequate playing time (n=6)
- More practices/clinics: fewer games okay, like the specialized clinics (n=7)
- Better communication: more on website, post-season activities, weather, felt dismissed by RAYB Board (n=6)
- Rec teams should be more balanced (n=5)
- All Star Game: kids too young, unfair/inconsistent methods for voting, didn't know about it until too late to attend (n=3)
- Bathrooms: Evergreen/Acorn bathrooms not open during league nights (n=3)
- Tryout process: make-up sessions were rigorous/transparent, no parent coaches should be selected prior to tryouts (n=3)
- Level of play: playing up due to coach/parent favoritism (n=3) and Oakdale Rec teams are travel-quality (n=2)

Volunteering

- Concessions: More training, have a main contact available, unable to open (n=6)
- Not enough opportunity to fill hours: no concessions at most fields, more field cleanups, post-game clean up (n=4)
- It's not volunteering if it is required (n=2)

Coaching

- Develop more fundamentals: catching, base-running, warm-up drills (n=9)
- Conduct: arguing with umps, negativity/yelling at kids (n=7)
- Expectations: prepared lineups, favoritism, GameChanger training (n=4)
- Emphasis on player safety: on deck circle, batting practice before games, healthy arms (n=4)
- Better communication to parents: weekly updates (n=3)
