

Player Code of Conduct

As a player at Kelso Youth Baseball (“KYB”), it is your job to have fun and enjoy the game of baseball. Good sportsmanship, teamwork, and learning the rules of the game are all a part of your experience. Please read the players code of conduct carefully, and ask your parent or coach to explain any that you don’t understand. By understanding and playing by these rules it will help you to become a better ball player and an important part of your team.

- Play for the fun of it, not just to please your parents or coach.
- Play by the Rules of the Game.
- Never argue or complain about Umpire's calls or decisions.
- Control your temper. Most of all resist the temptation to retaliate when you feel you have been wronged.
- Concentrate on playing baseball with your best effort. Work equally hard for your team as for yourself.
- Be a good sport by cheering all good plays, whether it’s your team or your opponent’s.
- Treat all players as you would like to be treated.
- Remember that the goals of the game are to have fun, improve your skills, and feel good. Don’t be a showoff or a ball hog.
- Cooperate with your coaches, teammates, opponents and the umpires.

Failure to abide by the rules, regulations, and Code of Conduct of Kelso Youth Baseball may result in disciplinary actions being taken against the offender as outlined in the League Constitution.
