IRONMAN AUSTRALIA LOCKS IN NATIONAL STORAGE

The IRONMAN Group Oceania is pleased to announce National Storage as the Title Partner for IRONMAN Australia.

IRONMAN Australia will be held in Port Macquarie on Sunday May 2, with National Storage partnering with the event for its 35th running.

Dave Beeche, Managing Director of The IRONMAN Group Oceania, welcomed National Storage to the organisation.

“It’s great to welcome a significant Australasian brand like National Storage to the IRONMAN family, particularly to the iconic IRONMAN Australia for its 35th year,” said Beeche. “It’s a great fit for IRONMAN as many of our athletes I’m sure will be in need of storage and what better place to store it than at one of National Storage’s centre.

“We thank the National Storage team for partnering with IRONMAN Australia and look forward to working with them for many years to come,” he said.

Andrew Catsoulis, National Storage Managing Director, and 16-time IRONMAN finisher, and General Manager Sales, and 30-time IRONMAN finisher, George Takis both said that the organisation was looking forward to working with the IRONMAN Australia team.

“We’re delighted to partner with IRONMAN, a fantastic organisation with a strong commitment to excellence, and broad network of participants across Australia,” said Mr Catsoulis.

“We are excited to expand our strong sponsorship portfolio into NSW with the upcoming Port Macquarie event, and look forward to growing our footprint into this area.”
