Welcome to ASU Sun Devil Hockey!

The ASU ACHA hockey program is dedicated to providing high quality performance and representation both on and off the ice. We are a non-athletic scholarship, non-profit organization with perennial success in the American Collegiate Hockey Association (ACHA) Divisions I, II, and III. The D1 team won the National Championship in 2014.

The ACHA D1 Sun Devils are part of the ACHA Division I, playing in the Western Collegiate Hockey League (WCHL). The team plays 30-35 games a season starting with open tryouts in August and playing through the National Championship Tournament in March. The D1 team practices 3 times a week and gets prime ice time for their weekend games. ASU also fields an ACHA D2 team and an ACHA D3 team, they both practice 2 times a week and also play 30+ games. Team dues for 2024-25 were $4,300.

Beyond hockey, the program provides students with an excellent opportunity for leadership and responsibility that will benefit them long after they hang up the skates

Mullett Ice Arena

In the fall of 2022, ASU opened the new Mullett Ice Arena on the Tempe campus. It is now the new home for the NCAA D1 team. This past season all ASU ACHA teams practiced on the community sheet at Mullett. The ACHA D1 team played some games on the main Mullett sheet, all other home games were played on the community sheet. This will continue to be the situation for the 2025-26 season.

Playing in the WCHL

The WCHL is one of the strongest conferences in ACHA D1. Currently it consists of 2 regions: East – Missouri State, Colorado State, Colorado, Central Oklahoma, and Oklahoma West – Grand Canyon, ASU, Utah, UNLV, SDSU and Arizona. In 2024-25, the WCHL champion was UNLV who also won the National Tournament. ASU also plays non-WCHL teams. D1 travels out of state 5-6 times a year.
