

M.I.A. WALLOPS BOTTOM LINE 20-5, 9-4 TO JUMP TO SECOND PLACE

Game 1

Game 2

BOTTOM LINE entered the game in first place and they were looking like the team to beat. M.I.A. quickly dispelled that thought as they trashed BOTTOM LINE from start to finish. For M.I.A. the very first batter, Doug (Go-Go) Goldenberg singled and following batter Ike Ash laced a 2 run dinger for a lightning quick 2-0 lead. The BOTTOM LINE should have known from then that this would be their worst nightmare of the season. M.I.A. went on to hit 26 basehits including 5 homeruns, 4 triples, and 2 doubles!! Ezra (K) Ashkenazie continues to prove to everyone that he can hit just as good as he pitches, as he went 4 for 5 on the day. Hymie Shamah blasted 2 homeruns on the day and even more incredible than that is one was hit left handed! Captain Jack Braha, Steve (Steco) Cohen, Ike Ash all hit homeruns as well. Steve Shami went 4 for 5, and Doug (Go-Go) Goldenberg, Hymie Shamah and Jack Braha had 3 hits. Steve (Steco) Cohen came off the bench and went 2 for 2 with a triple and a homer.

M.I.A. went to work quickly in Game 2, by plating home 2 runs in the 1st inning via a 2 run double by David Matut and they put the game away in the 2nd inning by scoring 5 more runs for a 7-0 lead. A 7 run lead with Ezra on the mound is like money in the bank (before the S&L scandal, of course.) Ike Ash came through in the clutch delivering 2 two run singles in this game. For BOTTOM LINE Joey Cohen went 5 for 6 on the day, and Sammy R. Cohen had 2 hits in this game along with 3 R.B.I.'s. Erwin (Kineman) Braha wumped a solo blast over the left field fence for one of the few highlights by BOTTOM LINE. M.I.A. has now won 4 games in a row and 5 out of their last 6. Doug Goldenberg went 5 for 9 on the day, Jack Braha went 4 for 4, and Steve Shami hit 5 for 7 along with 6 R.B.I.'s. M.I.A. also reactivated all-star first baseman, Jim Haber from the disabled list.

ROCK N' ROLL poured on 3 more runs in the 5th inning, and 5 more runs in the 6th inning highlighted by a 2 run tater by Labo to put the finishing touches on this one sided victory. For ROCK N' ROLL, Rich (Player of the Week) Shalom, Labo and Victor Ashkenazie, all went 3 for 4. Eli Harary hit 4 for 4, and Captain Elliot Braha along with veteran Charles Saka chipped in with 2 hits apiece. The Lone Bright spot for MOE KNOWS was Harold (H) Shamah who hit 2 for 2 including a 2 run clout over the blue monster. Captain Moe (PoJo) Levy chipped in with 2 R.B.I.'s.

Game 2

ROCK N' ROLL continued their awesome hitting in the second game, scoring 3 runs in the first, highlighted by Red's 4th homerun of the year and 4 runs in the 3rd inning thanks to a 3 run dinger by Captain Elliot Braha. However, MOE KNOWS kept pace with ROCK N' ROLL by scoring 2 runs in their half of the first inning and 4 more runs in the 3rd inning via a 2 run triple by Charles Anteby and R.B.I. hits by Nathan (Hit Man) Tawil and Harold (H) Shamah. The turning point of the game came in the 4th inning. ROCK N' ROLL held a 7-6 lead and had 2 men on with one out. At this point of the game MOE KNOWS had a little momentum going, but it didn't last very long. The batter was Ed (Walkman) Azar. But Ed wasn't looking for a walk this time around. Ed tattooed a 2-2 change-up over the left field wall for a 3 run tater and gave his team a 10-6 lead. ROCK N' ROLL added 4 more runs in the 5th inning on back to back 2 run doubles by Eli Haddad and Dave Gadeloff. Gadeloff has to be the leading candidate for comeback player of the year. (He hit 4 for 4.)

BLACK MAGIC AND S.Y. ANGELS SPLIT A PAIR

Game 1

BLACK MAGIC came into the 6th inning trailing 4-2. Captain Dave Franco promptly reduced the deficit to one run on a solo homerun. The next batter, Henry Shalam followed with a double and came around to score on a sac fly by Ike Maleh to knot the game at 4-4. Both teams were shut down in the 7th inning and the game went into extrainnings. BLACKMAGIC had numerous opportunities to score, but Jeff Saka kept on pitching out of trouble. BLACK MAGIC left 2 runners on in the 8th and 9th innings. On they went to the 10th inning. Dave Franco shingled (his 3rd hit of the game) and Sammy (Booga) Cohen singled. Ike Maleh stepped up to the plate with 2 men on the 2 outs. It looked like the BLACKMAGIC were going to squander another opportunity to win the game. But before you can say "That was Cap Day?" Ike Maleh mashed a clutch 3 run homerun and pitched a scoreless 10th inning to preserve the victory. For the S.Y. ANGELS Elliot Betesh, Alex Dweck, and Ray (Doo-Da) Dayan each collected 2 hits apiece.

Game 2

The S.Y. ANGELS just lost 3 games in a row and they needed a win here desperately. Jeff Saka pitched a whale of a game to put the S.Y. ANGELS back on the winning track. Jeff allowed only 1 run and scattered 10 hits without giving up a walk. Jeff is among the leading candidates for comeback player of the year as he continues to pitch stingy every game. Jeff is 3rd in the league in the E.R.A. department. BLACK MAGIC's ace Ike Maleh didn't do too bad himself, but is just wasn't enough. Sandy Zinn led off the 5th inning with a triple and scored and a Ray Dayan grounder to score the first run of the game and give the S.Y. ANGELS a 1-0 lead. The S.Y. ANGELS added 2 insurance runs in the 6th inning on a Alex Dweck one out double followed by a Jack (Peaches) Picciotto R.B.I. triple and Captain Ike Dweck R.B.I. grounder. BLACK MAGIC broke the shutout in the 7th inning on a triple by Steve Kahan.

HARDWAY TAKES 1ST 6-5, BUT RIGHT ONES ROMP IN GAME 2 11-4

Game 1

With THE HARDWAY leading 4-3 in the 6th inning, Moses Eastman led off with a double. Jack Menashe (Fresh off the disabled list) followed with his own double to give THE HARDWAY a 5-3 lead. Two outs later with Menashe still standing on 2nd base, Joey (Cap) Tobias delivered a key R.B.I. double to expand the lead to 6-3. (That run ended up being the winning run.) THE RIGHT ONES came fighting back in the bottom of the 7th. Meno Dweck and Victor Azrak opened the inning with consecutive singles. One out later, Jeff (Scooter) Gindi whacked a 2 run double to cut the deficit to 6-5. But Moses Eastman got tough and retired the next two batters to take the game 6-5! For THE HARDWAY Maurice Haber went 3 for 3 with 2 R.B.I.'s and Abie Dweck, Jason Cohen, Captain Moe Missry, and Joey Tobias each collected 2 hits. For THE RIGHT ONES, Jeff Gindi hit 3 for 4 and Sammy Jemal, along with Eli Zilberman hit 2 for 3.

THE RIGHT ONES came out swinging from their heels in Game 2. Top of the 1st inning, Rich Braha and Ike Yedid Both singled and came around to score on a Zak Mishaan 3 run dinger. One out later, Eli (The Other) Zilberman tripled home another run to give THE RIGHT ONES a 4-0 lead. Eli Zilberman struck again in the 3rd inning with another run scoring triple, and Dave Ancona brought him home for a commanding 7-1 lead. THE HARDWAY scored 2 runs in their half of the 3rd inning on Captain Moe Missry's 2 out 2 run triple to cut the lead to 7-3. But THE RIGHT ONES put the game away in the 5th inning by scoring 4 more runs highlighted by a one run double by Dave Ancona and a 2 R.B.I. double by Victor Azrak. Maurice Haber finished out the scoring for THE HARDWAY by belting a solo homer in the 6th inning. Maurice is hotter than a pistol; he went 6 for 6 on the day. Joey Shamie also hit 3 for 3 in this game. For THE RIGHT ONES Captain Ed Mishan and Eli Zilberman ripped 3 hits apiece.

ONE YEAR AGO THIS WEEK...

- 1) On May 27, 1990 the League celebrated "Cap Day"
- 2) Fred Zalta of the Front Runners out dueled Moses Eastman of the Chosen Ones by tossing a 5 hit shut out to win the game 1-0 and earn a split of a doubleheader.
- 3) Maurice Haber of Al Davis went 5 for 7 with 5 R.B.I.'s and was named "Player of the Week."

IMPORTANT NOTICE!!

There have been many questions from players in the league about our league's games rules. The Deal Softball League plays by the "Official Softball Playing Rules" as adopted by "The Amateur Softball Association of America." Any person interested in knowing the correct rules of a modified pitch softball league should purchase the 1991 Official Softball Rule Book at a sporting goods store. (deBeer is one of the rule books you can ask for by name.) Thank you.

One on One with Ike Maleh

A new comer's view of the deal softball league

Last season, the Deal Softball League's AAA farm team (Brooklyn's Black Magic) made minor league history by going undefeated through out the ENTIRE season (that is in BOTH the regular season and post season play!!) to capture the minor league title. Needless to say the Deal Softball League Committee felt it was time for Black Magic to jump up to the big leagues. Many baseball experts (including the Famed Rebbe Yosef who reported by satellite radio from somewhere in the desert) thought that this move was a bit premature and that Black Magic would have benefited more by another year of seasoning in the minors.

Well, we are at the half way point in the season and Black Magic has silenced their critics by proving to have as good a chance to win, the coveted 1991 deal softball league championship title, as any other team in the league. Due to the surprising (well not to all of us) success of this team, the Deal Softball Weekly has sent thier newest field reporter, Maurice Haber, to interview the nucleus of the Black Magic team, Ike Maleh.

One On One with Ike Maleh.

DSL: We all know you are a great hitter, but you are more known for your pitching, how did your pitching career start?

Ike: About 8 years ago, I was in a game and we were getting beat bad. Everyone took turns pitching, and when my turn came I get 3 straight outs. I've been pitching ever since.

DSL: What is the biggest difference between the Brooklyn league and our Deal league.

Ike: The competition here is much stronger. Deal plays better defensively and the team play is better. The only negative part about the Deal league is the commute.

DSL: Why did you make the switch from Brooklyn to Deal?

Ike: David Franco made me.

DSL: In your opinion, what does it take to win in this league?

Ike: A coach like David Franco irritating the opposing pitchers.

DSL: What do you think the other teams in the league think of Black Magic?

Ike: I think they are very scared of us, and they should be.

DSL: Who do you think are the top all around players in our league NOT including your own teammates?

Ike: Elliot Braha and Red Nesser. Elliot Braha is also my toughest batter to get out.

DSL: Who do you predict will be playing in the world series this season?

Ike: Rock n' Roll and Black Magic.

NATHAN'S PREDICTIONS FOR JUNE 2, 1991

1) THE RIGHT ONES (4-4) vs. BLACK MAGIC (4-4) - THE RIGHT ONES sweep. BLACK MAGIC are playing like a bunch of wimps and it's about time Deal showed them how to play softball!

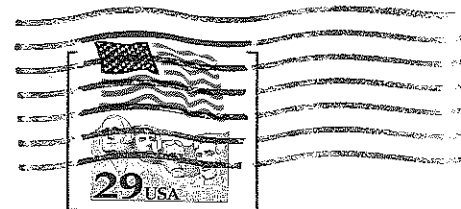

2) M.I.A. (5-3) vs. THE HARDWAY (3-5) - THE HARDWAY sweeps. Moses is going to be unstoppable from here on in!

3) ROCK N' ROLL (6-2) vs. BOTTOM LINE (4-4) - Split. Both teams are too good to lose two games, so it must be a split.

4) S.Y. ANGELS (3-5) vs. MOE KNOWS (3-5) - MOE KNOWS sweeps. I have a feeling my cousin, Nathan Tawil is going to have a big day and knock out these bums. Nathan will hit at least 2 homeruns this afternoon!
