Objective:

- To provide a positive competitive wrestling experience for new to the sport or limited success level wrestlers and Parents
- Attempt to match wrestlers in similar ability groups based on age, years of positive experience, previous success, and tournament placements.
- Limit weight classes to 4 wrestlers in order keep tournament competition under 2 hours.
- Providing appropriate competition for our future champions and parents will help our sport grow.
- There is no state championship for these wrestlers unless they move up to the MSWA Youth State Tournament Series.

Awards: Medals for Top 4 (All wrestlers except for Super 16)

Skill Levels:

- Beginner Division – Wrestlers who have not competed in Experienced Division Future Champions Series, Beltway Jr. League or MSWA Age/Weight State Qualifiers. These wrestlers may have up to 3 years of experience (or more), but with limited success. They may still compete in the Beginner division. If a wrestler is clearly competent in skill, he will be moved up to the Experienced Division.
- Experienced Division – Wrestlers with significant success in the Beginner Division or clear natural ability over a Beginner wrestler, but has not yet demonstrated the skills of an Advanced wrestler. These wrestlers may have competed but not placed in MSWA Champions Age/ Weight State Qualifiers, Beltway Jr. League or any other competitive level tournaments. Wrestlers who have competed in the Experienced division may no longer compete in the Beginner division. Wrestlers with superior athletic and natural ability regardless of number of years wrestled should move up to the MSWA Youth State Tournament Series.
- Qualification for Series Events: Wrestlers will compete in either Beginner Division or Experienced Division at each event. Please see skill level DEFINITIONS for more details if unsure if wrestler is Beginner or Experienced. Progression, Development and Learning are the goals.

 SUPER 16 GUIDELINES

The SUPER 16 is a program only for those beginner/inexperienced wrestlers that have participated in the Future Champions events.

Qualification details are being finalized and will be updated on the MSWA website (<https://www.marylandwrestling.org/futurechamps>)
