

May I play baseball?

Start with the 4 red questions below...

*close contact is defined as more than 15 minutes spent within 6 feet of an individual with no mask. If both individuals are masked, there is no close contact.

people who have tested positive for COVID-19 within the past 3 months and recovered do not have to quarantine or get tested again unless they develop new symptoms.