

The Chosen Ones and Just Do It Clinch Play Off Spots as they Split a Pair

Game #1

With the Chosen Ones leading 2-0 after 3 innings, they proceeded to put the game away by scoring three more runs in the 4th inning, highlighted by a Richie Shalom 2 run triple. Richie went 3 for 4 with 3 RBI in this game. The Chosen Ones didn't stop there, Capt Jack Braha singled home another run in the 5th inning and Jack Farca closed out the scoring by driving home 2 runs in the sixth inning to give the Chosen Ones an 8 -0 lead. Just Do It finally scored 3 runs in the 7th inning .But the game was already over by then. This victory clinched a playoff spot for the Chosen Ones. Before the game the Chosen Ones learned that thier ALL STAR First Baseman Jimmy Haber will be out for 3 weeks due to an injury. (Editor's Note: Get well soon Jimmy!!)

Final Score: The Chosen Ones 8
Just Do It 3

Game #2

This Game was a complete reversal of the first game. Just Do It jumped out to a 6-0 lead. In the first inning Rookie of the Year Candidate Albert Cohen rocked a 3 run triple with the bases full. In the following inning Capt. Ed Mishan smoked a 2 run Dinger to give his team the 6-0 lead. That turned out to be all Abe Cohen needed as he held the Chosen Ones to 8 hits and 2 meaningless runs to give Just Do It both the victory and the playoff spot. Dave Grazi tripled home 2 more runs later in the game. Jason Cohen also chipped in with 3 hits. For The Chosen Ones David (No Photo) Zilberman added 2 more RBIs to his league leading 22 RBIs. Moses Eastman also had a productive day at the plate, going 4 for 5 with a walk.

Final Score: Just Do It 10
The Chosen Ones 2

Bahama Mamas Score 4 in Final At Bat to Avoid Elimination As They Split with Front Runners

Game #1

The Front Runner struck for five runs in the first inning and never looked back. Erwin (King Kong Kingman) Braha and Eli (Serrano) Zilberman blasted solo homers in the second and third inning to put the dazed Bahama Mamas in an 8-3 hole. Somebody should wake this Bahama Mamas team up and tell them they are supposed to be playing baseball. And while they are at it they might as well wake up the Front Runner too. Both of these teams sleep walked through this poor excuse for a double header. For the Bahama Mamas, Nathan (The HIT Man) Tawil continued his Hot Hitting (Copyright N. Tawil) with a 3 for 3 performance, and Capt. `Smokin' Joe Ades blasted a solo homer over the blue monster back in the 6th inning.

Final Score:	Front Runner	8
	Bahama Mamas	4

Game #2

The Bahama Mamas were down to the last out, if they had lost this game they would have been looking for a spot at the Casino for a good part of the summer. It didn't look promising, in the last inning they had 2 outs and noone on base. The vultures were circling around the field. But THEN it happened!!! Moe (Pojednick) Levy singled, Sam Jemal followed with a single and Capt Joe Ades came through with a BIG RBI single to bring home the tying run. Joe had a great day at the plate going 5 for 8 , includeing 1 homerun, 1 triple, and 2 doubles. But this inning wasn't over by a long shot, with the game tied at 6-6 Freddie Harari delivered the knock out blow by Smashing a 3 run dinger to give the Bahama Mamas a second life, and not to mention the game. Dave Matut also had a big day for the Bahama Mamas going 5 for 7. Dave came through with a key 2 run single to cut the lead to 1.

Final Score:	Bahama Mamas	9
	Front Runners	6

Real SY Angels and Boy of Summer Split a pair of `Nail Biters'

Game #1

With the Game tied at 4-4 in extra innings the Real Sy Angels' Ed (Walkman) Azar led off with a single. Capt. Ike Dweck followed with a double putting runners on second and third with no outs. The Boys Of Summer tried a strategic move and intentional walked the next batter to set up a force at home. But Ray Dayan hit a SAC fly to break the tie and put the SY Angles ahead 5-4. The Boys of summer walk the next batter again this time to setup a double play. And this time the strategy paid off and they got out of the inning with out further damage. The Boys Of Summer got the run back in their half of the inning. After Jack (Player Of The Week) Haddad singled , Capt. Ikey Franco doubled and Dave Laboton brought the game tying run home with a SAC fly. In The 9th inning the Real SY Angels' Sandy Zinn singled home the eventual game wining run to give his team the first game 6-5. Earlier in the game Jack Haddad and Ikey Franco each smacked 2 run homeruns for the Boys Of Summer.

Final Score: Real SY Angels           6
                  Boys Of Summer        5

Game #2

Chubby (Humpty Dumpty) Kassab tossed a 3 hitter to keep the Boys of Summer in the pennant race. In the 1st inning the Boys of Summer's Bobby Kassin ripped a 2 run tater to give his team an early 2-0 lead. In the 4th inning with the Real SY Angles trailing 4-0, Ray Dayan put them on the board with an RBI double. Ray Dayan struck again in the 6th inning doubling home 2 more runs with the bases loaded to set the score at 4-3. But the turning point for the game came on the tail end of Ray's double. Alan (Spark Plug) Maleh of the Boys Of Summer, threw out the tying runner who was trying to return to 3rd base! The SY Angels couldn't recover after that costly base running blunder and had to settle for a split.

Final Score: Boys Of Summer       4
                  Real Sy Angles           3

Ultimate Warriors Jump to Second Place after Convincing Sweep Of Al Davis

Game #1

The Ultimate Warriors displayed something that you don't see much of in this league, they played TEAM BASEBALL. The players on this team are not afraid to give themselves up by sacrificing runners over. As a result the Ultimate Warriors pecked away for 2 runs in the 1st and 3rd innings for an early 4-0 lead. Then in the fourth inning they put the game away by erupting for 5 more runs. Elliot Betesh, Fred Nessar and Mitchel Haddad collected 2 RBIs apiece. Red Nessar took of the care rest to give his team a 9 - 5 victory in the 1st game of this twin bill. For Al Davis, Charles Anteby went 3 for 3 and Rookie Isaac Shomer wacked a homerun.

Final Score: Ultimate Warriors 9
Al Davis 5

Game #2

This game was a classic pitching duel. Al Davis' Ike Yedid only allowed 8 hits, but 5 of those hits were for extra bases including 2 homeruns. Ultimate Warriors' Red (Why Aren't I on the ALL STAR Team) Nessar topped Ike Yedid by hurling a 5 hit shutout. Sollie (The Natual) Dweck clouted a solo homer to give the Ultimate Warriors a 1-0 lead in the 3rd. That was all Red needed but he gave himself an extra cushion by adding his own 2 run tater in the 4th. the Ultimate Warriors closed out the scoring in the 6th inning on an Elliot Braha RBI double. The Ultimate Warriors have now won 5 straight games. Befor this week Al Davis had their own 5 game winning streak. With this sweep the Ultimate Warriors clinched a playoff spot.

Final Score : Ultimate Warriors 4
Al Davis 0
