Player Code of Conduct

Hockey players should strive to do their best at all times. They should be loyal to their team and teammates. They should work to improve their skills and condition during off-ice times as well as when on the ice. They will be responsible for their own behavior and conduct on and off the ice and understand the consequences if it is inappropriate.

I, agree to the following code of conduct:

- I will follow the coach's practice and game policies. I will notify the coach of any excused absences prior to any practice or game. These may include family emergencies, required church/school activities, and illness. I understand that unexcused absences may result in one or more period suspensions.
- I will be loyal to my team and teammates and understand that negative or demeaning comments, or physical abuse directed at another player, coach, official or spectator will not be tolerated and may be subject to disciplinary actions.
- I will encourage good sportsmanship at all times by my behavior, language and play. My example should at all times be an inspiration to other players and I will help and encourage the other players.
- I will contact the coach directly with any concerns or questions I have, following the proper channels.
- I will follow the USA Hockey Official Playing Rules and accept the decisions of the game officials without inappropriate behavior.
- I will remember that at all times and places I am a representative of the Austin Youth Hockey Association and will conduct myself in an appropriate manner.

THIS SIGNED CODE OF CONDUCT WILL BE KEPT ON FILE WITH THE AUSTIN YOUTH HOCKEY ASSOCIATION AND I UNDERSTAND THAT VIOLATING THIS CODE MAY RESULT IN DISCIPLINARY ACTION
