

Name: Ethan Moll Hind

About Me: I am a senior at James Madison Memorial High School. I have committed to Edgewood College to continue playing volleyball, and to study Business. I ran track my Freshman year and also played basketball my Freshman and Sophomore years.

Playing Experience: I first started playing volleyball in my Freshman year, where I played on JV my first year and on Varsity for the next 3 years. Even though I got a late start on volleyball, I had natural talent. My vertical from playing basketball definitely helped too. My Junior year was the first year that I started playing club volleyball, where I played for CVA. My Senior year, I switched over to playing for Madison Elite. I improved a lot with my club experience, which helped me reach my goal of making First Team All-Conference in my Senior year.

Most Memorable Moment on the Court: My most memorable moment on the court was definitely during my Senior night, when we played against Middleton. Madison Memorial boys' volleyball never really received any attention. They weren't usually very good, and most young talented players would choose to go play at Middleton, the boys' volleyball powerhouse. Even though we lost to Middleton, it was still fun to compete with the guys I played club with. That was also the game that I truly realized, and was proud of, the program we had built at Memorial. I, along with my fellow seniors, had finally put us on the map in volleyball.

Why Did You Choose This College: I chose Edgewood College because I really connected with the coach and his message. I was very intrigued with the idea of starting fresh with a brand-new program. Plus, it is extremely close to home, and the campus felt like home to me.
