

1990 ULTIMATE WARRIORS PROVE THEY'RE THE ULTIMATE SOFTBALL TEAM!!

Deal All-Stars spanked the Brooklyn All-Stars 9-6 in Game One!

Game One

Deal All-Stars vs. Brooklyn All-Stars

The Deal Softball League now holds a 3-0 record against the Brooklyn League after their July 4th roughing up on the Brooklyn All-Star team. The Deal All-Stars began their assault in the top of the first inning. Nathan Tawil and Mike Mishaan opened the inning with back to back singles. Maurice Haber walked to load the bases. Jack Braha then laced a 2 run double to give the Deal Stars a 2-0 lead. Brooklyn knotted the game at 2-2 by scoring 2 runs in the bottom of the first inning. Deal got the lead back in the very next inning. Erwin Braha and Charles Anteby cracked consecutive singles and one out later Charles Sved singled in a run to give Deal a 3-2 lead. The score remained 3-2 until the 5th inning. An Ike Ash single followed by a Nathan Tawil double put runners on second and third with one out. Mike Mishaan delivered a clutch opposite field double bringing home 2 runs. Maurice Haber followed with a walk, and Jack Braha singled, loading the bases for Morris Missry. Morris put the game away with a monstrous blast to deep left, for a game breaking grand slam!! Ezra Ashkenazi and Red Nesser secured the victory.

Game Two

Deal All-Stars vs. 1990 Ultimate Warriors

This game proved two things. 1) Team chemistry is more vital than pure talent, and 2) Red Nesser definitely belongs on the All-Star team!! Red Nesser drove in 5 runs and pitched six scoreless innings, before giving up two meaningless runs in the 7th inning. Red simply over matched this 1991 Deal All-Star squad. The 1990 Champions scored 3 runs in the 1st inning and coasted the rest of the way. Elliot Betesh and Mitch Haddad singled putting runners on the corners. Captain Elliot Braha doubled in one run and Red Nesser knocked in 2 more runs with a sac fly. Then in the 3rd inning with 2 men on, Red launched a 2 run triple to deep right center to give his Ultimate Warriors a 5-0 lead! In the 5th inning the Warriors struck again! With runners on 2nd and 3rd, Mitch Haddad and Elliot Braha ripped consecutive R.B.I. singles. Red Nesser followed with a sac fly giving the Warriors an 8-0 lead!! The following inning Joe Tobias and Ed Beda smoked back to back doubles to increase the lead to 9-0. Elliot Betesh poked his 3rd hit of the game to drive in yet another run. The Deal All-Stars finally got on the board in their final at bat by scoring twice.

Game Two

S.Y. ANGELS were smelling blood as they jumped all over MOE KNOWS in the 1st inning for 4 runs to take a quick 4-0 lead. Alex Dweck, Jack Picciotto, and Nathan Tawil laced consecutive singles to put runners on the corners with a 1-0 lead. Sam (Player of the Week, Again) Tawil smoked a bases clearing triple and came around to score on Ike (Spike) Dweck's sac fly. Things were looking bleak for MOE KNOWS as they were staring elimination straight in the face. But MOE KNOWS answered back with 2 runs in their half of the first inning on a 2 run single by Charles Anteby. MOE KNOWS tied the game at 4-4 in the bottom of the 3rd inning. Mike (Hiigh) Mishaan doubled home one run and Moe Levy singled in the tying run bad back and all. The rains stopped the game at that point. The game will be continued at 10:00 am Sunday on Field 'C' with the score tied at 4. It will be the top of the 4th inning for S.Y. ANGELS with no one on base and no outs. The winner of this series will return at 5:00pm the same day and play one game.
