

Ice Hockey Officials Signing Up for Assigning Platform: Assignr

Leagues:

NJYHL

Independent AHF/THF Organizations
House and Adult Leagues (some, not all)

1. Join the Assignr Platform at this link:
 - a. <https://app.assignr.com/q/site/0c1f825eac4fbe12ba11ba8f22fd40bc-garden-state-hockey>
2. Create your profile, including all information asked for, including name, email, phone number, and date of birth. This allows assignors to properly assign you games and/or your assignor/partner to have your contact information.
3. Set up your bank account and W9 information
 - a. Many clubs use online payment systems. In order to be paid for these games, you must have your bank account and W9 successfully setup.
4. After setting up your profile, you still must REGISTER as an official for the group. You can do this under your profile on the right side of the page. You will enter your USAH Number, Officiating Level, and District.

Once you have done this, you have successfully registered for the site and can go onto the next requirement, availability and receiving assignments.

5. Assignors have the ability to add you to their officiating list for their organizations/ rinks. Email the assignors you are interested in working for and introduce yourself. You can find assignor information on the AAHA website.
6. Setup your availability under My Availability on the left side tabs. Keep your availability updated and current, at least a few months ahead.
