The team travels to Bloomington on Friday for the state finals. The following week, they head to Nationals in Orlando.

Good luck, ladies!

Wrestling

Glenbrook South wrestlers Will Collins, KP Santos win conference titles Saturday.

Great job!

Girls Basketball

The girls' basketball team lost a hard-fought CSL South battle to conference-leading Evanston 41-37.

The team, still without leading scorer Kristin Ralston and defensive whiz Julia DiSano, held the Wildkits to their lowest point total of the year. The Titans led 21-15 at halftime, but were outscored 13-0 to start the second half.

Despite the Evanston run, the girls battled back to tie the game early in the fourth quarter, but missed lay-ups and turnovers killed the opportunity for the upset. Libbie Vanderveen led the girls with 9 points, followed by Maddie Kapsimalis with 8, Makayla Stadler and Annie Streb with 6, and Challen Flaws and Grace O'Brien with 3.

Stadler had a phenomenal effort with 11 rebounds, 5 steals, and 2 assists. Vanderveen was equally impressive with her ball-hawking defense and 8 rebounds. Flaws also turned in a great defensive effort against D1 recruit Kayla Henning and collected 8 rebounds, as well.

The Titans are now 16-5 overall.

Boys Basketball

The Boys Basketball team topped host Lake Zurich 67-55 Saturday, in the Lake Zurich Martin Luther King Tournament. Balanced scoring led by Dominic Martinelli (16 pts), Zach Carr (15 pts), Will King (14 pts) and Mac Hubbard (8 pts).

The Titans will play in the championship game on Monday at 2:30 PM vs Carmel

On Friday, the Titans lost a road conference game to Evanston 50-41.
