Time	Item	Owner
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) T-shirts are being ordered and an orchestra general website b) Meeting <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) This group will get more information ahead of time...not all information will be shared with entire parent group b) Not all chaperones are with their kids—it was based on how the students wanted to room with c) You do not need to be with your students 100% of the time, but you need to know where they are 😊 d) School rules in this country apply—weapons, drinking, drugs e) Each family decides about phones—some will have them, some will not. Chaperones can ask about phone numbers, ask parents. Because of this, a lot of good old fashion check points. Recommend, chaperones at least a minimal international plan f) Big duties of chaperones—nighttime room checks. Must be in their rooms. Also, only people assigned to the rooms can be in those room at ANY time...if others are hanging out, a chaperone must be present g) Groups—must always be four or more. One doesn't need to a chaperone. Idea is if there are challenges—1 stay with person in trouble and 2 go get help—no one is ever alone h) Flight—50 on United Flight, and 28 on the Delta Flight There are some kids who have never flown before...be ready for homesick and challenges. i) Try to get a ride to the school—hoping to not leave any cars here. Everyone will leave from the school and return to school. j) Chaperones share a room with another chaperone. k) Medications—students should carry and administer their own medications. Dr. Dean will let us know if specific instance is needed l) Make sure your students are eating and drinking...because they are young adults...just keep an eye on it. Make sure have water bottles m) Passports—Dr. Dean would like the chaperones to be in charge of their students n) Recommend that each student brings $100 Euro to start with

Time	Item	Owner
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> o) Ask parents to all bring a copy of their passport...so chaperones have a copy, copy at home and a copy in the luggage or somewhere else p) Chaperones need to do a background checks—look for that coming from Dr. Dean q) Join the Schoology Greece Group...our students have been added...Greece Tour 2025 Osseo Orchestra r) Rehearsals coming up during Focus Hour, sheet music is available in the group s) Students should print out their own tour music. t) Get international plugs u) Gratuities have been pre-charged—bus driver and our tour guide v) Pack food in a Ziploc so it can be pulled out for security as needed w) Hotel might not be assigned until 15 days prior x) Clothing—mix of weather—60 degrees, 40 for a low—wear concert black, and also the tour trip t-shirt.
