

Kodiak Hockey League Guest Player Policy

A guest youth hockey player affiliated with an organization other than Kodiak Hockey League (KHL) may attend practice and/or games, under the following conditions:

1. Guest Player must have a valid and current USA Hockey Number and be affiliated with a youth hockey organization under USA Hockey (unaffiliated or new-to-hockey players need to register with KHL or KHL Learn-to-Play programs).
2. The head coach must approve the player to join their practice or game roster.
3. Fees:
 - a. Pay-to-Practice: For skaters participating in practice only. Players are not allowed to play official games with KHL. Typically used for skaters registered with comp organizations. Fee is the current KHL registration.
 - b. Pay-to-Play: $100.00 fee per invitational or tournament. For skaters from other Alaska house organizations participating in invitationals or state with KHL teams. If not registered with another house organization, it is necessary to register with KHL.
