Welcome Message from PSC

Welcome to PSC Pro Soccer Tryouts. Our goal is simple: to provide talented, motivated players with a genuine pathway into the professional game. Something we have achieved over 750 times in the last 15 years.

Whether you are pursuing your first contract or looking to elevate your career, we are committed to giving you an honest opportunity, clear feedback, and direct exposure to clubs actively looking to strengthen their rosters.

The rest is up to you....

Brief History of PSC

PSC has been one of the most trusted providers of professional football placement in North America for over 15 years. During this time, we have helped more than 750 players sign professional contracts across the United States, Europe, Asia, and Australia. Our success includes placing players into top leagues, helping players earn national team call-ups, and guiding unknown talents into full-time professional environments. Some of our standout stories include:

Sulahmana Bah:

Signed his first pro contract through PSC before finishing the season top scorer for his league earning a move to the Premier League, and a national team call-up for Liberia where he has gone on to score 1 goal in 2 games in 2025.

James Bolger:

Signed his first pro contract in Sweden. After 3 good months in Sweden signed in Irish Premier League and won the Irish FA Cup in front of 40,000 fans just 8 months after attending his first PSC pro tryout.

Aim of the Tryout

The aim of PSC's Pro Tryouts is to identify players with the physical, technical, tactical, and mental qualities required to compete at the professional level in Europe and USA. Our staff & attending coaches assess players holistically, looking not only at current ability, but also long-term potential and readiness for the demands of the professional game.

Players who demonstrate the required standard can be offered professional trials or contracts directly by the attending coaches, almost all of whom have previously signed players from PSC events.

In addition, PSC's Agency staff will be evaluating players they can recommend to our global network of professional clubs, extending your exposure far beyond the coaches physically present.

Every player, regardless of outcome, will receive a detailed individual feedback sheet outlining their strengths and the specific areas needing improvement. This ensures the event functions not only as a showcase, but also as a valuable developmental opportunity for players wishing to continue progressing and potentially attend future showcases.

What Players Can Expect

Genuine Professional Exposure

During the three-day tryout, you will play in front of - and be coached directly by - professional head coaches, sporting directors, and scouts from invited clubs. You will be evaluated live by these attending coaches who have the power to sign players and are attending specifically to identify players for their upcoming seasons.

Honest, Experienced Evaluation

Alongside the attending coaches PSC's staff of former professionals and UEFA-licensed coaches will assess your ability across all key metrics - technical, tactical, physical, and mental - and determine your suitability for professional placement or provide genuine tangible feedback on what you need to work on in order to showcase at a higher standard in future.

Real Career Opportunities

Players who perform at the required level may receive:

- Direct professional contract offers
 - Invitations for club trials
- Selection for PSC's European Showcase Tours
- Recommendations to partner clubs in the U.S. and abroad
- Long-term support and guidance from the PSC placement team

Every player who attends receives a legitimate chance to be seen, assessed, and considered for available opportunities. Many of our most successful players came from tryouts exactly like this one.

What our Agency Staff, and Attending Coaches, are looking for?

First and foremost, we're evaluating whether a player has the technical, tactical, and athletic ability required to compete at the professional level.

Beyond that, we pay close attention to a player's professionalism — including time-keeping, attitude both on and off the field, teamwork, and the respect they show to coaches, staff, and fellow players.

Players who do not demonstrate these qualities will not be recommended to professional clubs by our agency staff.

Players often ask us what they can do to stand out and catch the eye of the attending coaches. It's a tough question to answer definitively — football is a game of opinions, and every coach is looking for something slightly different when evaluating players.

Ask five people for their top five players in the world, and you'll likely get five different lists. It's no different at a PSC Combine — each coach brings their own perspective, preferences, and expectations to the field.

After 15 years of running these events, we can definitely offer some basic advice on the do's and don'ts during a tryout — all based on real things we've seen happen in previous events...

Ways to make a Bad Impression

- Turn up late, on ANY of the 3 days
- Spend more time complaining at the referee than playing the game.
- Get in to fights and arguments with players around you.
- Get in to fights and arguments with coaches.
- Text or email the coaches or staff asking for a ride to the fields.
- Refuse to follow instructions given to you by coaches or staff.
- Hanging around coaches trying to listen in to private conversations.

Ways to make a Good Impression

- Work hard on the field both attacking AND defending. Be prepared to work hard.
- Follow instructions given to you during the tryout by coaches and by PSC staff.
 - Arrive on time to the event.
- Work well and cooperate with the players around you on the field. Teams at a tryout are never going to be perfect and as experienced coaches we understand this when evaluating!
- Remember you are being judged for your character as much as your ability. Body language and mentality is vital if you are looking to make a good impression!

What happens after the Tryout?

Following the tryout, players can expect one of the following outcomes:

1. Selected to sign or trial with an attending professional club.

Players who meet the required standard may receive immediate opportunities from the coaches present at the event.

2. Recommended to trial or sign with a non-attending club through PSC Agency staff.

PSC's global network allows us to recommend standout players to clubs abroad. These opportunities may require immediate international travel, so players should be prepared and have a valid passport.

3. Consideration for PSC's European Showcase Tours

Players may be invited to join our high-level showcases in Ireland, Denmark, or Malta, where they will compete against professional opposition and be scouted by additional coaches from around the world.

4. Not considered ready for the professional level at this time

Players who are not yet showcasing at a level ready for direct professional placement will still benefit significantly from the tryout experience. Every player receives an individual feedback sheet with clear, constructive, and actionable guidance from the professional coaches. This information is designed to help you understand exactly where you can improve and how to progress your game. Many of PSC's successful placements were players who didn't sign at their first tryout but used this feedback to elevate their level and return stronger.

Players will be contacted by PSC staff within 14 days of the event informing them of their outcome. Regardless of outcome, EVERY player will be contacted via email so please be sure to add the domain name @pscltd.co.uk to your safe senders list or check your junk folder following the tryout.

Player Testimonials:

James Bolger

Signed in Sweden & Irish Premier League, winning Irish FA Cup 8 months after his first PSC combine in Colorado 2024.

“We have played against high quality teams, and met some great people...you won't get this type of experience and opportunity without putting yourself forward and working with an agency like PSC”

Jacques Fokam Sandeu

Signed in Iceland after 4 days on the 2024 Showcase Tour and the Atlanta Combine.

“The tour was very good, we were provided with quality food, quality places to stay and played against good teams. It was really helpful to have coaches be involved as much as they were. I have been with teams and trials where coaches didn't want to teach us how to play or give us their experience but here every member of staff was involved to help us showcase to our best”

Gary Cennerazzo:

Signed in CZ Republic, USA & Sweden

"It was surreal as I had to phone my parents and explain that I wouldn't be back for three months. I had never done anything of this kind, but I am glad I did it with PSC. Trust me, please, it's worth it. It's an amazing opportunity and I am very thankful to PSC, Tom and Simon [PSC Directors] for making it happen."

Eddy Prugh:

Signed with Bodens BK (Sweden), and then Colorado Switchbacks (USA)

"After I graduated from college, I had zero options to continue my career. It's not as if you can just call a team and ask for a trial, so I turned to PSC to help me find a club. They were honest and direct from the very beginning. Both the combines and the Sweden Showcase Tour which I attended were well organized and gave me the chance to sign a professional contract. Working with PSC turned out to be one of the best decisions I've made in my career."

Important FAQ's

- Players will be assigned positions based upon their registration form. If you would like to showcase in a different position, please let a PSC staff member know, however, if you did not originally list it on your registration form we cannot guarantee it.
- Over the course of the three days, if you are late for your assigned games, this will result in a reduction of playing time, please be sure to arrive on time.
- If you arrive before registration, please do not enter the field - we will give you plenty of time to get warmed up and please do not bring your own soccer balls – we will provide.
- PSC are a FIFA Licensed Agency and will handle any negotiations of contracts offered from the tryouts. If you already have an agent it is important you let us know before you attend the tryout.
