

GLL Tournament Team (All-Star) Procedures

In addition to the regular season of play, Glendora Lassie League (GLL) has chosen to extend the privilege of All-Star participation to those meeting the basic requirements set forth by the Board. These requirements include, but are not limited to skills, sportsmanship, availability and commitment. This form is being given to ALL players of GLL. This is in no way a guarantee to play All-Stars. Only players who have signed the commitment form may be eligible for All-Stars.

- A. The number of tournament teams from any division will be determined yearly by the Board.
- B. The tournament team managers will be selected by the Board.
 - a. Any manager or coach wishing to manage the tournament team should submit an All-Star Manager Application to the divisional director. Any manager wishing to be considered for the position of Tournament Team (All-Star) manager must be a certified ACE coach upon selection, per ASA/USA regulations. In addition to the manager, one additional coach must be a certified ACE coach. Any person involved with the team must be Concussion Certified.
- C. Tournament team players may be selected using the following criteria:
 - 1. Performance during the season
 - 2. Manager evaluations
 - 3. Commitment
- D. The specific selection process will be determined yearly by the Board.
 - 1. 6U-14 U Managers will recommend/discuss players from their team. The recommended players must have a signed All Star Commitment Form.
 - 2. The All Star Player Selection will take place on or after May 1st. At this meeting, each Manager will give brief reasons why he/she recommended each player. S/he can discuss strengths, positions, and points that will be helpful in the selection process. Managers should be prepared to discuss all players who turned in a commitment form. If a Manager is unable to attend, he/she may send a coach with knowledge of the players.

- a. Managers will also rank all available pitchers to assist in player selection
- 3. At the conclusion of the discussions each Manager will be given a ballot to vote for the top 12 players. This vote will be done privately.
- 4. Once the Managers have voted, the Gold Manager will remain to select the team. The process below lists how the selection process will run:
 - a) Gold: 9 of the top 12 vote getters (including ties) must be chosen by the All-Star Manager, PLUS 2 free (Manager) picks, 1 Board review.
 - i. If the Board has no objections then the manager will be free to pick the final player/players
 - ii. The Board will give consideration to having a representative from each team
 - b. Managers picks may be selected from any eligible player who turned in a commitment form. 12 players will be selected. 13 players may be selected if managers chooses too.
 - b) A re-vote/ranking of the remaining players will take place by the division managers.
 - c) Once the Managers have voted, the Silver All-Star Manager will remain to select the team
 - d) Silver: The Silver Manager then selects 9 of the top 12 highest vote getters (including ties) from the re-vote 9 of the top 12 vote getters must be chosen by the All Star Manager, PLUS 3 free (Manager) picks from any eligible player who turned in a commitment form. 13 players may be selected.
 - e) Players who played up a division will be given one automatic vote by the Board for the All-Star player selection process.
 - a. These players need to declare what division or divisions they wish to be considered for
 - f) Gold team may, at any time may pick a player from the Silver team due to an injury or extenuating circumstances with Board approval. If a player is picked up she then becomes locked to that team for the remainder of the All Star season.

F. Tournament Team Eligibility

- 1. Players will be required to sign the All-Star commitment agreement form as provided by the Board before being eligible for the Tournament Team.

Commitment forms will be distributed to all players wishing to be considered for the All-Star teams. The commitment form is not a guarantee to play on any All-Star team.

2. The eligibility time frame will be designated yearly by the Board and will depend on tournament dates
3. If a player submits a commitment form and then withdraws from a team after selection that player will not be eligible for All Stars the following season.

The Board can grant exceptions to this rule based on extenuating circumstances

4. GLL does not allow team preference in player commitment forms (“Gold team only”, “Silver team only”)
3. ASA/USA Player Eligibility:

- i. Players must play a minimum of 75% of the current season’s league games played before May 1st.
- ii. Players who have played in a higher league age classification during the current season are eligible to play in their correct age classification.
- iii. Players who have participated on a team other than their recreation league teams after April 1st of the current season are not eligible; (i.e. a player shall not participate with any other league, All-Star or *8 type team, including ASA/USA and non-ASA/USA after April 1st.) *Note: Participate in the above shall be defined as: a player taking part in a practice, practice game, scheduled game or tournament.
