ANDREW NAZAK

Seeing you tonight, just four months away from graduation, we couldn't be prouder of you. You've grown so much from the little boy who we signed up for Learn to Play Hockey, to the self-sufficient, kind, smart, hard-working young adult that you have become. All your hard work and dedication in everything that you have done these past twelve years has not gone unnoticed. We are truly privileged to be a small part of this chapter of your life. Stay true to your amazing self and you will accomplish everything you want and more. We will always support you in anything that you choose to do.

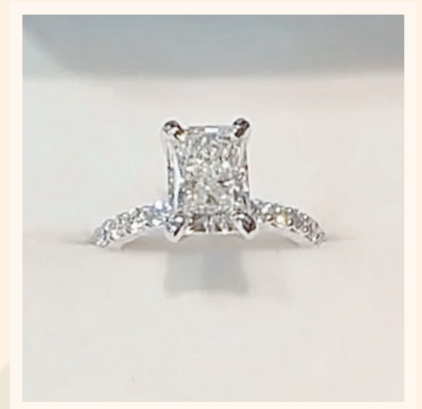

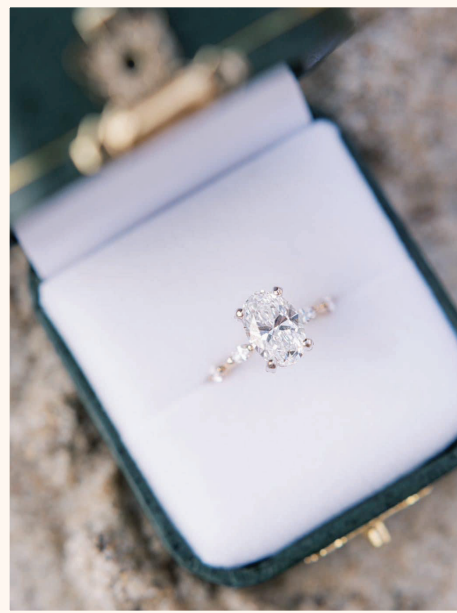

Love you so much, Mom, Dad, and Megan.
