OTHER

- Eagle Scout Project: A young man presented a potential Eagle Scout Project to the board. He would like to build a canopy over the brat fry area. At this time he is only asking permission to start looking into the project. He needs permission from us before presenting it to the ES board for approval. Once he gets approval from them, he will be in contact with Tom to figure out the details. (Size, materials, costs, etc.)
 - Erin made a motion to allow him to begin the process with the understanding that he will present further details to the board before moving forward, 2nd by Jen. Motion Approved.

RED RAIDERS

- Senior night is on 02/09. Playing Homestead on 02/14 for playoffs.
- HS is requesting an additional worker to monitor off limit areas.
- Meeting with Bantams & parents to discuss options for bubble kids (2nd year Bantams that are old enough to play high school) On 03/07 or 03/09 Bantams will be able to practice with HS.

TREASURER'S REPORT

- All financials were emailed. Concessions expenses are up.

FUNDRAISING/MARKETING

- Marketing asked for permission to paint a mural in the social hall. Concerns were brought up as to the location, the cost, and the design. There will be no cost, it is a donation. They will create a design and present it to the board. They will also put up a chair rail to protect the mural.
 - Erin made a motion to allow them to move forward with the planning stages and come back to the board at a later date with a proposal, 2nd by Jen. Motion Approved.
- Marketing updated the Next Level website and made a Facebook blast.
- Fundraising had the idea to do personalized banners that would be purchased by individual families. Looking into costs.
- Valentine's Day skate on Sunday 02/12

YOUTH HOCKEY

- Discussed Next Level. Registration is off to a slow start. We will revisit in March. A lot of families wait until after the season to discuss options for summer hockey/camps.
 - (14) for half day younger kids Week #1
 - (24) for half day older kids Week #1
 - (11) Week #2
 - (18) Week #3
