Grammy Music Awards March 14th 2021 on CBS at 7:00 PM Central Standard Time

Musical Notes March Extended Edition

By Carson Macynski

Information from NPR News and PARADE Magazine

The Grammy Music Awards (GMA) is scheduled to occur on March 14th 2021 and there is already a list of Nominee's lining up but there is also a long list of past winners that won GMA's in past years. Here are some of the top GMA winners from past years.

1. In 1962, Johnny Mercer and Henry Mancini won a Grammy after writing the song Moon River which appeared in 1961 film Breakfast at Tiffany's. Not too long after, the song Moon was written and it became a theme on Andy Williams TV show.
2. In 1975, Marvin Hamlisch and the Bergman's won a Grammy for their signature song which appeared in the film The Way We Were which premiered in 1973. The Minor key the song was written in is what caused it to become popular in the first place.
3. In 1986, Michael Jackson won a Grammy Award for his song We are the World which was used to support charity and the succeeding song That's What Friends are for contributed to the battle against the HIV virus.
4. In 1989, Bobby McFerrin won a Grammy for his song Don't Worry be Happy which was supposed to convey positive messages to listeners. The lyrics were inspired by an Indian Mystic and the song was popular for long periods of time after being released.
5. In 1995, Bruce Springsten won a Grammy for the score to 1993 film Streets of Philadelphia which was about a man battling AIDS. He underestimated himself greatly and his score was praised greatly before and after winning his Grammy.
6. In 2002, Alicia Keys won a Grammy for her song Fallin which was written in a Ballad Style with piano accompaniment. She was trying to use lyrics to capture love's seesaw and the song has not fallen out of love even two decades after being released.
7. In 2010, Beyonce won a Grammy Award for her song Single Ladies which was directed towards woman trying to find first love. It took four weeks to break records and reach the top 5 for songs released in 2010. Despite Competition, she will appear in the 2021 GMA.
8. In 2017, British Singer Adele rivaled Beyonce and rocked the charts with her song Hello which received a Grammy and she was very humble on stage and stunned many audience members and fans in the process.

Now here is a list of people nominated to participate in the GMA 2021 this March. This is a way to celebrate your return to full In Person Learning for the first time in just about 365 days. The list of nominees is very long but here are the top eight.

1. Beyoncé was nominated to potentially win ANOTHER Grammy this year for her song Black Parade which reached over 22 million views and 196,000 likes on Youtube and it was a song used to celebrate Juneteenth ever since it was released in 2006
2. The Black Puma's song colors was released in 2019 and it was nominated to win a potential Grammy even though it gained 64 million views within the first months of being released. The song is still in the top zones of popular music.
3. DaBaby's song Rockstar which included Roddy Ricch. The song's top music video has scenes that were used to resist systemic racism and support human rights campaign groups across the U.S. and the rest of the world.
4. Taylor Swift is in the potential of giving her Folklore Album a Grammy which was released during the rough days of 2020. Her song rivaled with many other popular musicians and her album received likes from 97% of everyone who listened to it.
5. When they say people are stronger together, you got an example of it when Lady Gaga and Ariana Grande teamed up and made hit song Rain on Me which gained Billions of views and likes after being released in May 2020. Both ladies have won previous Grammys on their own and Ariana Grande did have correspondence with Justin Beiber.
6. Billie Elish is looking at two consecutive Grammy wins with Bad Guy from the 2020 GMA and the 2021 GMA is expected to Grammy her for the hit song Everything I wanted released in 2019 which received 200K views and more likes months after being released.
7. Justin Beiber was ready to prove he hasn't had enough with his song Changes which is expected to win a Grammy this year. The album comprises songs that have gained hundreds of thousands of fans, likes, and many more views. Beiber also created the song Stuck With U with Ariana Grande during the lockdown.

8. The H.E.R song created by Dernst Emile and Tiara Thomas was named I Can't Breathe and the lyrics contributed to the fuel of the social justice movement that took place in recent times. Like many other songs, this song reached large hits with 700,000 views and many more likes which is why it is on the nomination list.

NBA All
Star
Break

By Nikhil Jain

The NBA has reached the point in the season when they nominate the best players so far to play in an all star game. People were not sure if the game would happen this year due to the risks involving covid transmission but the NBA decided to go through with it. The captains this year were LeBron James and Kevin Durant. Team LeBron includes LeBron James, Giannis Antetokoumpo, Stephen Curry, Luka Doncic, Nikola Jokic, Jaylen Brown, Paul George, Rudy Gobert, Damian Lillard, Chris Paul, Domantas Sabonis, and Ben Simmons. Team Durant includes Bradley Beal, Joel Embiid, Kyrie Irving, Kawhi Leonard, Jayson Tatum, Devin Booker, Anthony Davis, James Harden, Zach Lavine, Donovan Mitchell, Julius Randle, Nikola Vucevic, and Zion Williamson. My money is on Team LeBron, especially with KD out. After last year, I am very excited to watch the game with its new format.

FIFA 21

By Nikhil Jain

I have spent countless hours this year playing FIFA 21 so I thought it would be a good idea to do a game review. FIFA 21 is a soccer game created by EA which features many different game modes. These game modes include kickoff, seasons, pro clubs, career mode, and Ultimate Team. I mainly play Ultimate Team and Pro Clubs. EA tends to focus on the Ultimate Team gamemode as it brings in the most money. While, in my opinion, this is the most fun mode, pro clubs brings a social aspect to the game where you can play with friends on a team that is unmatchable. The concept of the game is very good but I wish EA would improve the gameplay and focus more on career mode and pro clubs. An online career mode would be incredibly enjoyable and it is not unrealistic as it has existed in past FIFAs. Overall, I give the game a 7/10 and recommend it to anyone who enjoys the game of soccer.

Thank you
