

Port Washington Legends

Frequently Asked Questions

- 1) What time are tryouts on November 9th and 10th? Will my child be expected to participate on both days?
You will be notified via email of your tryout time during the week of November 4th. You will only have one time slot to attend, on either Saturday or Sunday. If you indicated on your application that you are unavailable on either of those days, you will be contacted with a date for make-up tryouts.
- 2) Will decisions be based solely on the tryouts?
No. The evaluations on November 9th and 10th are just one consideration. Current and past Legends coaches, as well as PYA intramural coaches (for those players who haven't played Legends in the past), provide evaluations based on past performance.
- 3) For kids who attend sleep-away camp or take extended summer vacations, will there be a spring/fall only team at all age levels?
Maybe. In 2019, we had spring/fall teams for 9u and 10u. If we have enough interest from both players and coaches, we will consider extending down to 8u (and possibly 7u), as well as up to 11u and 12u for 2020.
- 4) Are teams based on grade or birthdates?
Teams are largely based on birthdates. Beginning with the 9u teams for 2020, all teams will generally follow the travel league cutoff calendar of May 1 – April 30.
- 5) Do only blue team players play for the PYA Little League All-Star (Williamsport) team?
No. We will be conducting tryouts for our PYA Little League All-Star (Williamsport) teams (10u – 12u) in June 2020.
- 6) How much of a commitment is Legends?
In general, Summer is the primary season (12+ league games June – August with a weekly practice). Some teams also enter tournaments. Summer games are largely played on the weekends, but there could be weeknight games depending on the league and the availability of teams and fields.

Spring and Fall seasons are generally each 5 games (plus playoffs) with a weekly (weeknight) practice. Each team treats Fall and Spring differently (not all teams have a Fall season).

During the winter, teams will meet on a weekly basis (Friday, Saturday or Sunday) for an indoor winter workout.
- 7) When/where are winter workouts held?
Winter workouts are held at a local indoor facility. Each team will be given a timeslot of approximately 1 – 2 hours, during the weekend (Friday eve – Sunday).
- 8) How do I volunteer to serve as a coach on a Legends team?
Please notify Brandon Kurz at brandon@pyasports.org if you are interested in serving as a Legends coach.
- 9) What is the fee for Legends travel baseball?

Each season is invoiced individually and will vary by team and season. The invoiced amounts will include outside league costs, instructor fees, fields/workout facility charges, administrative fees, uniforms, tournaments, etc.