2019 IIHF UNDER-18 MEN'S WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP | UMEA & ÖRNSKÖLDSVIK, SWE. | APRIL 18 - 28, 2019

QUARTERFINAL GAME • USA (3-0-0-0) VS. FINLAND (1-0-0-3) • ÖRNSKÖLDSVIK, SWEDEN • FJÄLLRÄVEN CENTER • APRIL 25, 2019

TONIGHT'S GAME

The U.S. Under-18 Men's National Team faces Finland its quarterfinal matchup at the 2019 IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship here at Fjällräven Center (Örnsköldsvik), Sweden. Puck drop is set for 3:30 p.m. local/9:30 a.m. ET and will be televised in the U.S. live on NHL Network. All-time, the U.S. is 10-1-0-6-0 (W-OTW-OTL-L-T) against Finland and has outscored them 48-36. This will be a rematch of the 2015, 2017, and 2018 finals. Team USA won in 2015 and 2017, and the Finns won last year's tournament in the gold-medal game 3-2.

Finland finished the preliminary round at 1-0-0-3 (W-OTW-OTL-L). Finland is coming off a 12-0 victory against Switzerland on Tuesday (April 23), its lone win of preliminary play. Finland's losses came against Canada (5-3) on Thursday (April 18), Belarus (4-3) on Friday (April 19) and the Czech Republic (4-2) on Sunday (April 21.)

Finland ranks 5th in goals per game with 20 from preliminary play, while Team USA leads first place with 31. Finland is led by Aantonen Leevi, who has five points (1G, 3A) in four games.

TALKING POINTS

USA VS LATVIA RECAP

Cole Caufield and John Beecher each recorded two goals apiece in Team USA's 7-1 victory over Latvia in its final preliminary round game at Fjällräven Center. Spencer Knight made 12 saves in the victory.

USA VS RUSSIA RECAP

Team USA rallied from a 2-0 deficit on the way to a 6-3 victory over Russia in its third preliminary round game on Sunday (April 21.) Jack Hughes, Alex Turcotte, Matthew Boldy, Cole Caufield and Matthew Beniers scored for Team USA, and Spencer Knight made 20 saves in net.

USA VS SLOVAKIA RECAP

Cole Caufield and Jack Hughes each scored four goals in the U.S. Under-18 Men's National Team's 12-5 victory over Slovakia on Friday (April 19). Cam York, Alex Turcotte, Matthew Boldy and Owen Lindmark also netted goals for Team USA, and Cameron Rowe made 30 saves in net.

CAUFIELD U.S. GOALS RECORD

Following his tenth goal of the 2019 IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship in the victory against Latvia, forward Cole Caufield has surpassed Phil Kessel and Brett Sterling to take first place for goals scored by U.S. skaters in a single tournament. Going into the quarterfinal matchup, Caufield has 11 goals in just four games and is four goals shy of taking the single-tournament goal-scoring record, currently held by Alex Ovechkin at 14.

THINGS WORTH MENTIONING

The U.S. will play in its 12th quarterfinal matchup in the 21-year history of the IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship. In the previous 10 quarterfinal matchups the U.S. has only lost once. The loss came back in 2001 when the U.S. made its first appearance in the quarterfinals. The U.S. lost to the Czech Republic 5-4 in overtime. Since that point, the U.S. has won ten straight quarterfinal matchups, including three against the Czech Republic, more than any other country.

Team USA has five returning players who captured a silver medal, forwards Cole Caufield (Stevens Point, Wis.), Jack Hughes (Orlando, Fla.), Alex Turcotte (Island Lake, Ill.), defenseman Cam York (Anaheim Hills, Calif.) and goaltender Spencer Knight (Darien, Conn.). Jack Hughes earned the Directorate Award as the tournament's top forward. Hughes was also named to the Media All-Star Team and tournament MVP after leading the tournament in scoring with 12 points (5-7-12). Knight won four games in goal last year, while York recorded six assists and was named to the Media All-Star Team. Turcotte scored two goals and five points and Caufield tallied four goals and six points, both in seven games.

ABOUT HODGES

Jason Hodges is in his 21st season with USA Hockey's National Team Development Program and in 2018-19 is serving as athletic trainer for the U.S. National Under-18 Team. Hodges has served on the staff of five gold-medal squads at the International Ice Hockey Federation Men's Under-18 World Championship (2005, 2009, 2011, 2015, 2017). Additionally he has two silver medals in the event (2007, 2013).

ABOUT VISSER

Jake Visser is in his ninth season with USA Hockey's National Team Development Program and will work as the equipment manager for the U.S. National Under-18 Team in 2018-19. His stint has included three gold medals (2011, 2015, 2017) and one silver medal (2013) at the International Ice Hockey Federation Men's Under-18 World Championship. At the signature event for the U.S. National Under-17 Team, the World Under-17 Challenge, Visser has seen one first-place finish (January 2014) and one second-place finish (2012).

ABOUT THE STAFF

ABOUT MONAGHAN

Scott Monaghan will serve as the general manager of the U.S. Under-18 Men's National Team for the 21st time at the U18 Men's Worlds. He has served on the staff of for all ten gold medal-winning squads at the 2002, 2005, 2006, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2014, 2015, 2017. An original staff member of USA Hockey's NTDP, he currently serves as its senior director of operations and is responsible for all aspects of the NTDP. Monaghan works closely with the NTDP coaching staff to develop the challenging schedule the teams play, including the growth of an NCAA Division I/II schedule for the U18s and the program's transition to a full-time member of the USHL. Monaghan also has been on the staff of six U.S. National Junior Teams, last serving as team leader for the gold medal-winning squad at the 2010 IIHF World Junior Championship. Monaghan sits on the USA Hockey Player Development Committee and the USA Hockey Junior Council.

ABOUT WROBLEWSKI

John Wroblewski will be serving as head coach for the second time after previously leading the U.S. to a gold medal with a perfect 6-1-0-0 (W-OTW-OTL-L) record at the 2017 IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship. A player on the inaugural roster of USA Hockey's National Team Development Program in 1997, Wroblewski served as head coach of the United States Hockey League's Youngstown Phantoms (2015-16) prior to his current role. The Neenah, Wisconsin, native began his coaching career as an intern assistant coach for the U.S. National Under-18 Team (2007-08) as part of the NTDP. The following year, he was promoted to a full-time assistant coach, a position he held for two seasons (2008-10). In 2010, Wroblewski earned a gold medal as Team USA claimed first place at the 2010 IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship. Wroblewski skated with the NTDP for two seasons (1997-99) before suiting up for the University of Notre Dame. A four-year letterwinner with the Fighting Irish (1999-2003), Wroblewski served as alternate captain during his senior year and was the winner of the Notre Dame Monogram Club's Most Valuable Player Award.

ABOUT HINOTE

Dan Hinote is making his first appearance coaching for Team USA at the IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship. Hinote, who played 14 years of professional hockey in the NHL, AHL and SHL, recently concluded his first year as associate coach for the U.S. National Under-18 Team during the 2018-19 season. The Elk River, Minn., native played 503 games in the NHL and won a Stanley Cup championship with the Colorado Avalanche in 2001. He retired from professional hockey in 2010 and spent four seasons (2010-14) as an assistant coach with the Columbus Blue Jackets as well as a part-time scout for the Blue Jackets. Hinote played two seasons of college hockey at the U.S. Military Academy and today remains the only player in program history to be drafted as he was selected by the Colorado Avalanche in 1996.

ABOUT LIND

Kevin Lind, who has served as an intern assistant coach for USA Hockey's NTDP from 2017-19, will be an assistant coach for the U.S. at the 2019 IIHF Men's World Championship for the first time. Prior to the NTDP, Lind spent the 2016-17 season as an assistant coach for the University of Notre Dame. The 2010 NHL Draft pick (ANA, 6th rd., 177th ovr.) and four-year letter winner with the Fighting Irish (2010-14), Lind continues to be the only person in Notre Dame Hockey history to reach the NCAA's Frozen Four as both a player (2011) and a coach (2017). The Homer Glen, Ill. native won a championship with Team USA at the 2009 World Junior A Challenge and served as an assistant captain at the 2009 Ivan Hlinka Memorial Tournament.

ABOUT NIGHTINGALE

Jared Nightingale, who served as an intern assistant coach for the U.S. National Under-17 Team during the 2018-19 season, will represent the U.S. for the first time as an assistant coach at the IIHF Men's Under-18 World Championship. Nightingale spent the 2017-18 season as an assistant coach for the United States Hockey League's Omaha Lancers. The Cheboygan, Michigan, native played four years (2002-06) at Michigan State, and was an alternate captain his junior and senior seasons. Nightingale went on to a 13-year professional playing career that included stops in both the ECHL and AHL.

ABOUT SPEER

Thomas Speer, USA Hockey's national goaltending coach, will coach for Team USA a second time at the IIHF Men's Under-18 World Championship. Speer, who also oversees the Warren Strelow National Goaltending Mentor Program, guides the Under-17 and Under-18 goaltenders at USA Hockey's National Team Development Program. Prior to the NTDP, Speer worked as director of amateur goaltending for the Dallas Stars, a goalie development coordinator for USA Hockey in Texas and Oklahoma, and as director of camp development and personnel for Elite Goalies in Allen, Texas. He also served as a goaltending coach for the Allen Americans of the ECHL for four seasons.
