Notes:

- The Chicago Steel defeated the Dubuque Fighting Saints 3-2 in a shootout on Saturday night at Fox Valley Ice Arena ... It was Chicago's sixth overtime game this year, the most of any USHL team thus far ... Dubuque held the shots on goal advantage by a 34-25 margin ... The Steel went 1-for-5 (20.0%) on the power play and 3-for-4 (75.0%) on the penalty kill ... Chicago has now scored a power play goal in nine straight games.
- With the shootout victory, the Steel tied the franchise record for longest point streak to start a season. Saturday night's win sealed the 10th consecutive game with a point, matching the 2016-2017 team that went 10 contests without a regulation loss to open the season.
- Nick Haas made 32 saves in regulation and overtime. He stopped 3 of 4 shots in the shootout. Haas now has a 5-0-0-0 record between Steel pipes.
- Joe Miller capitalized on the man advantage and put the Steel on the board with a power play goal. The Toronto Maple Leafs prospect now has six points this season (2G, 4A).
- Jayden Perron tallied his fourth goal of the season in the win.
- Adam Fantilli ended the game with a shootout goal. Miller tallied the other shootout goal.
- Steel defenseman Jake Livanavage pushed his assist streak to five straight games, the longest point streak of his USHL career. Through 10 games, seven of his eight helpers have come on the power play.

- Boston College commit Lukas Gustafsson registered an assist, his fourth point of the season (2G, 2A).
- Steel rookies Casy Laylin and Zam Plante each recorded an assist in the shootout victory.
