Weekly Game Notes
Cedar Rapids RoughRiders: The RoughRiders currently lead the Dupaco Cowbell Cup over the Dubuque Fighting Saints and Waterloo Black Hawks with a 5-2-0 record.

Chicago Steel: Forward Sam Lipkin became the fourth player this season to register a four-goal game as he potted a quartet of goals last week in a Saturday night win.

Dubuque Fighting Saints: Stephen Halliday and Connor Kurth are first and second in league scoring with a combined 78 points (50-28-78) in 44 games. Kurth led the league in first period goals, which he scored on December 4, and after the acquisition of Jackson Hallum, the Fighting Saints account for three of the top eight scorers in the league.

Lincoln Stars: The Stars lead the league in goals from defensemen (47) this season, led by Dalton Norris (17) and Antonio Fernandez (11), who rank second and fourth in league scoring for defensemen and make Lincoln the only Club with multiple defensemen with 10- or more goals this season.

Muskegon Lumberjacks: Forward Quinn Hutson has 99 career points and is in position to become the seventh Lumberjack in team history to hit the century mark.

Omaha Lancers: The Lancers named Bob Rassey, who was serving as General Manager, Head Coach in Omaha ... Rassey previously served as an Assistant Coach with the Youngstown Phantoms (2011-13) before becoming an Assistant Coach at Harvard University and came back to the USHL after serving as Amateur Scout for the Detroit Red Wings for the last two seasons.

Sioux City Musketeers: Saturday night will be a reunion in Sioux City as the Musketeers host members of the 2022 Clark Cup Championship team for a 20-year reunion event.

Tri-City Storm: Anthony Noren currently has 298 career USHL wins and could earn his 300th on Friday night in Des Moines.

The Original Two: The Sioux City Musketeers and Waterloo Black Hawks have both maintained consecutive operations since the 1979-80 season when the USHL became exclusively a junior hockey league. Team history for both clubs date back to the professional USHL during the 1960s. The two Member Clubs have combined for four Clark Cups, six Anderson cups and more than 100 NHL Draft picks since 1980.

1995: The USHL becomes an all-junior league one year prior to the original merger agreement. The USHL is reorganized into two divisions, the North Division: Bloomington Junior Stars, Green Bay Bobcats, Hennepin Nordiques and St. Paul Vulcans and the South Division: Austin Mavericks, Bloomington Junior Stars and St. Paul Vulcans and a U.S. Junior-B level. Quad City Storm, Waterloo Black Hawks, and Sioux City Musketeers.

1997: The USHL, USA Hockey National Team Development Program (NTDP) plays a 24-game schedule in the USHL. The NTDP and the West Division: Des Moines Buccaneers, North Iowa Huskies, Rochester Muskies, Thunder Bay Flyers and Twin Cities Vulcans. The USHL reorganizes its two divisions into a two-division format, and play in an intra-divisional schedule with a Midwest Division: Austin Mavericks, Bloomington Junior Stars and St. Paul Vulcans and a U.S. Junior-B level. Quad City Storm, Waterloo Black Hawks, and Sioux City Musketeers.

The Minnesota Star organization ceases operations. The Austin Mavericks organization relocates from Austin, Minn. to Waterloo, Iowa, becoming the Waterloo Black Hawks. The USHL reorganizes its two divisions into the North Division: Austin Mavericks, Bloomington Junior Stars, Green Bay Bobcats and St. Paul Vulcans and the South Division: Des Moines Buccaneers, Dubuque Fighting Saints, Sioux City Musketeers and Waterloo Black Hawks.

1995: The USHL enters the league as an expansion team. The St. Paul Vulcans organization ceases operations itself as the Twin Cities Vulcans.

1996: The Fargo-Moorhead Bears organization ceases operations. The Fargo-Moorhead Ice Hawks organization relocates itself to two divisions including the North Division: Fargo-Moorhead Ice Hawks, Green Bay Gamblers, North Iowa Huskies, Rochester Muskies, Thunder Bay Flyers and Twin Cities Vulcans and the South Division: Des Moines Buccaneers, Dubuque Fighting Saints, Lincoln Stars, Omaha Lancers, Sioux City Musketeers and Waterloo Black Hawks. The USHL organization relocates from Council Bluffs, Iowa to Omaha, Neb., remaining the Omaha Lancers.

2000: The Twin Cities Vulcans organization ceases operations. The Fargo-Moorhead Ice Hawks organization relocates from Fargo, N.D. to Bensenville, Ill., becoming the Chicago Steel. The Twin Cities Vulcans organization relocates from Minneapolis, Minn. to Kearney, Neb., becoming the Tri-City Storm.

2003: The Danville Wings organization relocates from Danville, Ill. to Indianapolis, Ind., becoming the Indiana Ice. The St. Louis Heartland Eagles organization ceases operations. The River City Lancers organization relocates itself from Romeoville, Ill., becoming the St. Louis Heartland Eagles.
