

Financial Aid Policy (2025)

The Centennial Basketball Association (CBA) strives to make it economically possible for players to participate in our programs. To accomplish that goal, the CBA offers financial aid to eligible participants.

To be considered, players must qualify for the Educational Benefits Program as determined by Centennial Schools. Application and information regarding the Educational Benefits Program can be found at, isd12.org, the Centennial Schools web page. Proof of participation in this program is required.

The CBA Financial Aid application is due: August 15, 2025 for TRAVELING September 19, 2025 for IN-HOUSE NO LATE APPLICATIONS WILL BE ACCEPTED

- If financial aid is awarded, all applicants are still responsible to pay the full cost of the uniform whether in the in-house or traveling program
- Up to 100% of the cost of registration may be waived for the traveling or in-house program.
- Applicants may be responsible to pay a portion of the registration fees for the traveling or in-house program even if financial aid is awarded.
- If financial aid is awarded and in what amount will be determined exclusively by the CBA in the sole discretion of CBA financial aid committee. All decisions are final and there are no appeal rights.
- The CBA financial aid committee will review all applications and supporting documents. Applicants will be notified of the financial aid amount awarded prior to the registration deadline. A registration discount code will be provided if approved.
- Applicants must qualify for participation in the CBA. This generally requires the applicant attend a Centennial school or otherwise be eligible pursuant to MN Youth Basketball Alliance (MYBA) eligibility guidelines.
- Information provided by you on the application is confidential and will only be shared with those involved in the financial aid decision making process, including school officials and CBA board members.
