

LFYHA Player's Code of Conduct 2021

- Play for Fun!
- Work Hard to improve your skills.
- Be a team player – get along with your teammates.
- Learn teamwork, sportsmanship, discipline and self-control.
- Learn the rules of hockey and play by them, always be a good sport.
- Respect your coach, your teammates, your parents, opponents and all fans.
- Respect the officials - Never argue with the official's decision.
- No hockey player will be on the ice without a helmet and mouth guard. They must also be worn in the penalty box, score box and on the bench at all times.
- All players will respect the property and equipment used at any facility, both home and away.
- Be on time for all practices and games - Players should arrive at the arena 30 minutes before practices and 45 minutes before games, unless the coach has amended this to a different time.
- Players should come to each practice or game ready to play and give 100% of their attention to the game of hockey.
- If a player is involved in fighting, at practice, in the locker room, or on the ice, they will be automatically suspended for the next game. If it happens a 2nd time they will have to come before the LFYHA Board of Directors. The board will decide if, and when, the player is allowed to return to play.
- If a player is under discipline at school the player will be removed from team events for the same duration.

All players are expected to attend all scheduled practices and games unless they have been excused by the head coach. If not notified, the coach may impose the following but not limited to these penalties.

1. Player may have to sit the 1st period of the next game.
2. Player may have to miss the next game but will be REQUIRED to sit on the bench during the game with their team.
3. Suspension from and up to the next three practices or games. The coach may forward the player to the discipline board for repeated occurrences.

No player shall at any time verbally, physically, psychologically, abuse any other player, coach, parent, game official, team manager, or board member. All players will treat each other, parents, game officials, team manager, board member and people in the stands with respect and dignity, regarding language, attitude, behavior and physical gestures and mannerisms. Violations of this rule are disciplined according to the following:

- 1st Violation: miss 1 period of the next game.
- 2nd Violation: suspended for the next game.
- 3rd Violation: suspended from the team.

I have read, understand and agree to comply with the code of conduct as outlined above.
